Locally yesterday's election was one of the most interesting ever held in this city. It was an election that dumbfounded even the most astute political prophets. On the leading contests the suspense was unrelieved throughout the day and not until reports were heard from several sources that it was known that Walsh was the leader by a substantial majority and that Bird was second.

The manner in which the republican vote of former years was split up between the republican and progressive parties rendered it very difficult to predict results. Governor-elect Walsh carried the city by a plurality of 1567 over Bird while the latter led Gardner by 2527. It was apparent early in the day that there was a stampede of the republicans to the Bird camp with the hope of defeating Mr. Walsh. This, however, accomplished only the further humiliation of Mr. Gardner by reducing his vote to the low figure of 1514.

John J. Hogan, candidate for councillor, carried the city by a very large majority. Concluded on page five

WALSH GOVERNOR
BY 53,691 VOTES

Barry Elected Lieutenant Governor by 26,484 — Donahue, Secretary of State; Mansfield, Treasurer; Pope, Auditor and Boynton, Atty. General — Gain in Legislature

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The extent of the democratic gains in yesterday's state election was not fully realized until after a recapitulation of the figures today. Then it was found that Lieutenant Governor David L. Walsh had been elevated to the governorship in a four-cornered contest by a plurality of 53,691. This is the largest plurality ever accorded a democratic candidate for the office.

Complete returns give the vote for governor as follows:

DAVID L. WALSH (Democrat) 180,368
CHARLES S. BIRD (Progressive) 126,677
AUGUSTUS P. GARDNER (Republican) 116,314
EUGENE N. FOSB (Independent) 20,815

The new governor carried with him into office every democratic candidate on the state ticket with the possible exception of attorney general. This is another result unique in Massachusetts political history. Edward H. Barry is the new lieutenant governor. The vote for this office follows:

EDWARD P. BARRY (Democrat) 175,754
AUGUST H. GOETTING (Republican) 149,270
DANIEL COSGROVE (Progressive) 103,804

The other democratic state officers chosen are:

Secretary of state, Frank J. Donahue (re-elected); treasurer, Frederick W. Mansfield; auditor, Frank H. Pope.

The contest for attorney general between Attorney James M. Swift (republican) and Thomas J. Boynton (democrat) was close but the latter won by a slight margin.

Executive Councilors Elected

Dist. 1—Eben S. Keith, R., Bourne.
Dist. 2—Guy A. Ham, R., Boston.
Dist. 3—Timothy J. Buckley, D., Boston.
Dist. 4—Alexander McGregor, R., Malden.
Dist. 5—Edward G. Frothingham, R., Haverhill.
Dist. 6—John J. Hogan, D., Lowell.
Dist. 7—Daniel E. Denny, R., Worcester.
Dist. 8—Frank A. Hosmer, R., Amherst.

The republican grip on the legislature was weakened. That party after a control of years lacks a majority in each branch. The progressives who score heavy gains hold the balance of power. The senate shapes up as follows: Republicans 26, democrats 18, progressives 2. The house stands republicans 117, democrats 103, progressives 17, independents 2, socialists 1. The democrats also made slight gains in the executive council.

The outstanding feature of the election in addition to the magnitude of the democratic victory was the strength shown by the progressivists. For the first time since the republicans came into power as a party in this state their nominee for governor was forced into third position. Mr. Bird leading Congressman Gardner by over 10,000 votes. The progressive gains in membership in the legislature also give them a strategic position in both houses and senate.

Another point of interest was the small vote given Governor Foss. Mr. Foss, once a republican and three times elected chief executive as a democrat, entered the contest very late in the campaign as an independent.

The political complexion of the Massachusetts delegation in congress was not changed by the special election in the third district. Calvin Faigie (republican) being chosen to succeed the late Congressman William Wilder. Mr. Faigie received a plurality of 155 votes over Mr. Fred O'Connell (democrat) while the third candidate, Stephen M. Marshall, (progressive) was far behind.

during the campaign—to serve them earnestly, faithfully, devotedly. "In the election of today I see the mandate of the people for progressive government. In the fulfillment of the aspirations of the people I ask the assistance of all progressives of whatever party allegiance."

"Though nominated by the democratic party and elected as its candidate, I shall not forget that the chief executive of Massachusetts is the representative of all the people of the commonwealth."

More Candidates Have Taken Out and Filed Their Nomination Papers—Relic for State Armory

The time for filing of nomination papers will expire Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 5 p. m., and it is believed that the citizens of Lowell will have a long list to select from at the city primaries. The voters will be requested to select a mayor and two commissioners, as well as two members for the school board, and there are candidates galore for these positions.

The last to file their nomination papers with the city clerk are John J. McGreevy, school committee; Dr. Jas. J. McCarthy, mayor, and Lawrence Cummings, commissioner. William W. Duncan, former city solicitor, has taken out nomination papers, as did also Charles J. Morse and Charles T.

ALIENISTS DECLARED TODAY THAT ENRIQUE ZEPEDA WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—Alienists today declared not responsible for his act Enrique Zepeda, a near relative of provisional President Huerta and former governor of the federal district, who while in office entered the Belen prison on Mar. 27, 1913 and caused the murder of Major Gabriel Hernandez, a commandant of rural guards under the Madero administration. Zepeda took a squad of mounted police to the prison where Hernandez was confined as a political prisoner, ordered him out and had him riddled with bullets. Zepeda then had firewood piled in the prison courtyard and had the body of Hernandez placed on top and burned.

Money goes on interest at once. It is subject to check at all times. It is credited every month. What better can one do with idle money, money awaiting deposit in Savings Banks, awaiting investment or awaiting distribution. (Incidentally be it said there is no better, no safer place for money today, than a LOWELL SAVINGS BANK.)

Think this over twice. Interest at 2 per cent., average daily balances $500 or more. Account always subject to check; interest credited each month. It is all good, good all the way.

DEMOCRATS WON

Successful in Indiana and Illinois in Yesterday's Elections

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 5.—In the several elections in Indiana and Illinois yesterday the democratic candidates generally won out.

In Indianapolis Joseph Bell, democrat, for mayor was successful by a plurality of approximately 5000. The republican and progressive candidates for mayor ran about an even race. Of the large cities in Indiana, Evansville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Muncie, Logansport and Anderson will have democratic administrations, while in South Bend and Lafayette the citizens' tickets were successful.

For the first time in the history of Vincennes, the oldest town in Indiana, the republicans were successful, electing a mayor and other city officials. In 24 municipalities of southern Illinois women who exercised the right of franchise for the first time in the state voted in the ratio of 4 to 1 in opposition to saloons.

THE ELECTION RETURNS

QUICK SERVICE OF SUN STEREOTYPE CO. APPRECIATED BY THOUSANDS IN MERRIMACK SQUARE

Last night a crowd of over 10,000 people assembled at Merrimack square to get the election returns from The Sun's stereopticon. The Sun canvas was spread over Keith's electric sign and could be seen from Dows' drug store or any other part of the square and was greatly appreciated. The election results and all the closer contests were first announced from The Sun office and the interested crowd remained until the general results throughout the state and in New York were fully understood. The one cork test upon which the people got no final information was that of county commissioner, although it appeared early in the evening that the contest lay between McCloskey, the democratic candidate and Barlow, the republican. There was keen interest manifest in the vote for governor and it was early shown that Walsh was the leader with Bird second. This raised the hopes of the progressive party that Bird would be elected and the progressives showed great enthusiasm when the returns indicated that Bird was leading Gardner by a wide margin and close on the heels of Walsh. In the contest for lieutenant governor, Dan Conroy got a wide vote in the city and many of his friends were confident of his election, but he happened to be in the wrong party. Mr. McIntire's vote as candidate for county commissioner also encouraged the progressive party and for a time it was thought that he would be elected; but while he ran splendidly in Lowell, his vote fell off in the other parts of the county, thus giving his opponents the lead.

It was a good natured crowd that packed the square last night and the service of The Sun stereopticon and the rapidity with which the returns were sent out were greeted with applause and commendation. The Sun had a artist making slides and cartoons on some of the contest features and these helped to console those who were depressed by the news that their party or their political friends had been defeated. The Sun has again to thank Manager Pickett of Keith's theatre for the courtesy of offering the free use of his big sign for the screen on which to throw the returns.

THE LICENSE COMMISSION

REFUSES TO RUN A RUMMAGE SALE FOR CHURCH PURPOSES—MIGHT SPREAD DISEASE

The license commission held a short meeting this morning at its quarters in the Market street police station. The principal business under discussion was the petition of Fred H. Whitney, acting for the Highland Congregational church, for a second hand clothing dealer's license.

This license was asked for so that the church might hold rummage sales. One of the rules of the board reads as follows: "No person or persons shall conduct a rummage sale in any dwelling or any other place without obtaining a permit from the board of health."

Agent Bates of the board of health recommended that Mr. Whitney be given leave to withdraw his petition, and the suggestion was acted upon. The objection which the board of health takes to the conducting of rummage sales, recalled, is the danger of spreading of contagious diseases.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place Monday at St. Margaret's church when Mr. Frederick W. Kiefe and Miss Anna A. Moran were united in marriage. The best man was Mr. John J. Moran, brother of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth P. Kiefe, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride was charmingly attired in a traveling gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaid wore blue, beige and carried Killarney roses. After a reception and a wedding breakfast served by the D. L. Page company, Mr. and Mrs. Kiefe left for New York where they will journey to Old Point Comfort, Va., Washington, Philadelphia and on returning will reside on Westford street. They will be at home to their many friends after Dec. 1.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR LEAVES BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, who has been staying in Boston, will return to Washington this evening, accompanied by Sir William Tyrer, one of the private secretaries of Sir Edward Grey, the minister for foreign affairs. AMUSEMENT NOTES

Carl Henry and Nellie Francis, makers of "mitty nonsense," at the B. F. Keith theatre this week, are distinctly different from the average run of comedians. Henry is undoubtedly one of the greatest of impromptu funny men in existence, and Miss Francis proves one of the readiest of foils to him. They constitute one of the vaudeville teams which never gives enough. Encore after encore is demanded of them, and yet they leave their audiences wishing more. "A Country Bride," an amusing little comedy based on real life, is perfectly presented by Miss Frances Stevens and company. It is one of the very best of vaudeville comedies yet played here. Ruth Becker, a charming singing comedienne, is unhesitatingly considered the best in her line yet seen here. Willard's Temple of Music, which tops the bill, is a spectacular music making device, which will readily please. McCormick & Wallace, in a new ventriloquist act, Quigg & Nickerson, comedy musical duo, Van Cello, foot balancers, and the Pathe Weekly are the other excellent features of the bill. Good seats may be secured in advance. Phone 28.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

No better comedy has been given on a local stage than is found in "The Girl in the Taxi," the week's presentation by the Merrimack Square theatre Stock company. Miss Grace Young as "The Girl" is an enjoyable as she has been in any of her best characters. While Walter Scott Weeks and John Charles are found in parts that are especially good. Howard Sidney is funny as the older Stewart, the individual who passes an idea to his hand and a stern father, but who has a decided liking for a night now and then in the white-light district of a big city. The staging of the play is very well done and the comedy of it—and there is a full measure of it—is handled cleverly. The photo-plays between the acts are among the best shown, including comedy attractions, dramatic offerings and scenic creations that are instructive as well as entertaining.

OPERA HOUSE

"In the Shadows," the latest reel feature from the house of Warner, which is being shown for the first time on any screen at the Opera House today deals with the part fate plays in the lives of three people living in the same house. Rodrigo, a sculptor of great promise, is the warm friend of Jacques and his wife, who has taken up sculpturing and prevails upon her husband to pose for her model of the primitive man. He contracts a heavy cold and when he attempts to sing the part of Pagliacci in the opera of that name, his voice breaks and the disgrace unbalances his mind. He disappears and after an interval of time, his baby is born and the mother and child are cared for by Rodrigo, the faithful friend. One day he wanders into the opera house where he has failed so miserably, and the familiar surroundings restore his reason and he rushes home. Believing his wife, who has become blind through overwork, has married Rodrigo, he departs heartbroken.

Later, he gets another chance to sing the lead in "Pagliacci" and his wife and Rodrigo are in the audience witness his triumph. Shortly afterwards there is a joyful reunion of the husband and wife, who have further cause to rejoice over the success of an operation which restores the sight in the wife's eyes. Come early and tell your friends and neighbors about this Warner feature in which Miss Gene Gauntier and Jack Clark do such splendid work.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Songs of the sunny south and the typical dancing of southern darkeys—the combination offered by the Playhouse in its principal number this week—the nine Africaners. The musical Nerrises are also a hit, with their 12x2 band. Mr. and Mrs. Norris carry equipment which permits the playing of 12 musical instruments simultaneously, with the real band effect. Norman & Norman are original in their dancing and singing, while Cliff, Bailey, the barrel acrobat, has a novel that always makes a hit. The moving pictures are realistic and portray interesting stories.

Amateur night—Friday night—Lowell amateurs will be given an opportunity to perform, and their friends encouragement. Some theatres are supplied with a "hook" for the mints, but Manager Tebbets has not added this to his equipment, and for the present, at least, all amateurs are secure.

THEATRE VOYONS

Tonight will be the last opportunity of seeing "Broncho Billy Gets Square," at the Theatre Voyons. This thrilling western story acted by the Essanay company and Gilbert M. Anderson, is the first western production made by them and it will win high place in the regard of the thousands who like the style of acting made famous by Broncho Billy. His portrait of the western cowboy is unequalled and good judges say that it is the most true to life of any on the screen or stage. A very funny Edison comedy, "The Horrible Example," is a novel and thoroughly interesting number on the program.

THE KASINO

Doyle's orchestra tonight. The Kasino will hold forth tonight, tomorrow night and Friday night with Doyle's orchestra performing. Doyle is a new organization made up of experienced musicians who furnish variety as well as quality. From now on, as well as quality, Doyle's orchestra will play at the Kasino on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights with Miner's playing Saturday afternoon and evening and Monday night.

DEMOCRATS WIN AT BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Owing to the long and cumbersome ballot, returns from yesterday's elections were slow in coming in.

PRESIDENT WILSON PLEASANT WITH RESULT IN STATE ELECTION—"SPLENDID VICTORY," HE SAYS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—To David I. Walsh, elected governor of Massachusetts yesterday, President Wilson today sent the following telegram: "My heartiest congratulations. It was a splendid victory, finely won."

The president took a great interest in the various municipal elections and sent to his personal friend, Mayor Baker, re-elected in Cleveland the following message: "Please accept my warmest congratulations. It did us all good to hear of your victory."

Unofficial returns to the White House stating that Fielder had carried Essex county by 721 pleased the president very much. Secretary Tumulty declared that in Essex county the Smith-Nugent faction of the democratic party had supported the republican ticket.

Three Democratic Governors Elected Yesterday—Other Victories

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Democratic governors were elected yesterday in each state where this office was filled—Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia—and with the exception of New York state, where the Tammany democracy was severely rebuffed, more democratic than republican victories were recorded at the polls. Maryland elected a democratic United States senator, Blair Lee, and of four congressmen elected three are democrats. The exception was C. D. Paine in the third Massachusetts district.

In Massachusetts there was a democratic landslide. Lieut. Gov. David I. Walsh was chosen governor by a plurality of 53,691, the largest ever given a democratic candidate for the office. Mr. Walsh carried with him into office every democratic candidate on the state ticket.

The Tammany democracy in New York state was condemned in a manner which left little solace to the leaders. John Purroy Mitchel, fusionist, was elected mayor of New York city, leading Edward McCall, democrat, by 121,202 votes. William Sulzer, democrat, was elected governor of the state, was returned to the assembly from New York city. The New York state assembly will be safely republican.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND

Her Head and Chest Crushed as Though Beaten With Heavy Stones

POTTSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—With her head and chest crushed as though beaten with heavy stones, a woman believed by the police to be Mrs. Mary Louisa, of St. Clair, near here, was found dead yesterday in a clump of bushes on the outskirts of Pottsville. Mrs. Louisa, disappeared from her home about two weeks ago, and her 12-year-old daughter created a stir when she reported to the police that her father had thrown her mother down a mine breach and killed her. The mine breach was searched in vain.

A week ago the husband, Michael Louisa, disappeared leaving four small children alone. They are now being cared for by the county. The description of the missing woman tallies with that of the murdered woman. She had been dead about two weeks.

GRAFT INQUIRY

Gov. Glynn and John A. Hennessey in Conference Today

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Gov. Glynn today received a telegram from John A. Hennessey, requesting an audience. The governor immediately granted the request that Hennessey was expected here this afternoon. The governor presumed that Hennessey would lay before him some of the results of his graft inquiry and suggest further investigation.

"Any evidence that Hennessey has will be given most careful consideration," the governor said. "I desire, however, to deal with facts and not conclusions."

During the mayoralty campaign in New York the government accepted an offer by Hennessey to supply material for the continuance and prosecution of the graft inquiry. There was an interchange of letters and the governor's last communication to Hennessey was a request for all the substantial evidence he had.

received a large number of votes outside my own party and to these voters also I tender my sincere thanks."

THE NEW GOVERNOR

How David I. Walsh Rose from Poor Boy to Chief Magistrate of the Bay State

Governor-elect David I. Walsh was born in Loominster, Nov. 11, 1872, the youngest but one in a family of 10 children. He received his early education in the public schools of Loominster and Clinton, graduating from the Clinton high school in 1890. He entered Holy Cross college, from which he was graduated in 1893, completing the four-year course in three years.

By the death of his father in 1884 he was obliged to work outside of school hours and after securing his college degree was forced to go to work in order to earn sufficient funds to enable him to take up the study of law, which he had chosen as his profession. By the fall of 1884 he had earned sufficient money to pay his tuition at Boston University Law school, from which he was graduated in 1897. In the law school he was given two of the three highest honors in the class—president and orator.

A few months later he was admitted to the bar and began practice in Pittsburg and Clinton. In 1890 he was elected to the house of representatives from that strong republican district and in 1901 was re-elected by an increased plurality. He then retired from political life until 1911, when he was drafted by the Democrats to run as lieutenant governor against Robert Luce. He was defeated by the latter by a plurality of only 4151. Last year he defeated Lieut. Gov. Luce by a plurality of 36,321.

This year he declared himself a candidate for governor and swept the state. He is unmarried.

LIEUT. GOV. ELECT BARRY

Studied Law While in Newspaper Work and Later Won Notice by Defeating Councillor Grady

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Lieut. Gov. Elect Edward P. Barry was born in South Boston Nov. 28, 1884. He was graduated from the Lawrence school, that district, and subsequently from the evening high school. After two years' employment in a wholesale wooden house and three years in the Boston office of the treasurer of the Hamilton Manufacturing Company and Appleton Company of Lowell, he joined the staff of the Boston Daily Advertiser.

Later he was on the staff of the Boston Herald as reporter, sporting editor and night city editor and courthouse reporter. While in the latter position he studied law and was admitted to practice in 1904.

In 1889 and 1890 he was elected from Ward 15, South Boston, to the old common council and was for several years a member of the ward and city committee of ward 15. Fully as surprising as his victory yesterday was his victory in 1907 over Thomas J. Grady, a member of the governor's council, who had been elected to serve the unexpired term of famous "Mike" Sullivan.

Grady did not try Barry's candidacy seriously and Barry won by 254 votes. He was re-elected the next year. Like his predecessor, he was the only democratic member of the council. In October, 1909, he was an unsuccessful candidate for district attorney in the democratic convention.

He is a past president of the New England Amateur Rowing association, the New England Amateur Athletic association and the South Boston Citizen's association, and he is also a member of many social and fraternal organizations.

PRESIDENT PLEASED

Returns to White House Smiling Over the News From Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Washington failed to get up much enthusiasm about yesterday's elections, but President Wilson returned to the White House last night wearing a genial smile of satisfaction over the returns from Massachusetts, Maryland, New York and New Jersey.

The president watched the New Jersey returns closely for the final confirmation of the success of the democratic ticket, for which he had spoken and voted.

The election just about depleted the capital of interested officials and those who remained behind received the news of general democratic success with apathy. Senators and representatives had either hurried home to vote or taken a holiday, if they had no election to attend to.

The chairman of the congressional committee, Representative Woods of Iowa, republican, and Representative Borenus of Michigan, democrat, paid little attention to early returns. They were interested particularly in the results of congressional elections in the 3d Massachusetts 13th and 20th New York and the 3d Maryland districts, which were slow in coming in.

The representatives of the national committees of the democratic, republican and progressive parties had closed up shop in Washington and were busy tabulating returns in New York, Massachusetts and other regions of hotly-contested elections.

Secretary Bryan watched the returns closely, getting the figures over the telephone at his home. He had no comment to make.

SHELLS AT RIFLE RANGE

Militia Captain Will Start Investigation — A Greenhalge School Pupil Had Pocketful

The residents of West Centralville are worrying over the fact that many of the youngsters of that district go to the rifle range in Dracut and return with pockets full of loaded cartridges, and it was stated that but a few days ago a pupil of the Greenhalge school had in his possession 18 rifle cartridges, which at the request of the teacher, he turned over to her.

It is believed the cartridges, which caused the death of Francis McCann last Thursday, was found at the range, and that the same passed through several hands before reaching the McCann boy. A well known resident of the district, in conversation with the writer this morning said he believes the militiamen who practice shooting at the rifle range in Dracut are careless with their cartridges and that as a result many are left on the premises. "A number of boys go to the range quite often," said this man, "and return to the city with their pockets filled with the dangerous shells. Of course the parents are not aware of their children going to this place, and as a matter of fact it was not known that this was a sort of rendezvous for many boys until the tragic death of the McCann boy."

Many boys do not know of the danger of handling these cartridges, and they take pleasure in exploding them with cranks, and I feel that more rigid discipline should be established at the range so that loaded cartridges will not be left to be picked up by boys."

Capt. Peterson of Company C, Sixth regiment, when interviewed by the writer on this matter, said if it were proven that loaded cartridges were being found at the range, and a member of the militia be found guilty of being careless with his shells, it would mean a pretty serious matter. The captain said civilians also have access to the Dracut rifle range and it is more probable that if bullets were found there, they were the property of civilians, for each and every cartridge taken out of the armory by militiamen is recorded and scores verifying the fact that the said cartridges were fired are to be delivered to the quartermaster sergeant of each company, or the cartridges left brought back to the company's rooms.

The captain said it is not probable that militiamen would waste cartridges, for all in excess of a fixed supply from the government are purchased by each company at a rate of between $24 and $35 a thousand. He said the government supplies about 100 rounds of cartridges to each man and over that amount all that are used have to be paid for by each company. "As far as my company is concerned," said the captain, "I am still to receive a complaint to the effect that cartridges were not accounted for. I will take the matter up with my company tomorrow evening, for this is well worth investigating. However there may be instances where loaded shells are left in the field, but that is not very often, and this is only in a case of misfire, or when a cartridge will not explode in the rifle. Then the shooter may lay it aside and forget it, but this is not often done, for those cartridges are generally transferred to other rifles."

"I cannot speak for other companies, but I feel that these cartridges if found on the range grounds were not the property of militiamen for it does not seem probable that men of experience in the militia would part with their shells, for as a rule the militiamen are as careful about their cartridges as they are with their money. However I believe in giving this matter a careful study and I shall start an investigation in my company tomorrow night."

RIDDLED JAIL WITH BULLETS

Prisoners Stole Whiskey, Shot Guns and Ammunition, and Attempted Big Jail Delivery

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Nov. 5.—Two drunken prisoners, with a shotgun and 1000 rounds of ammunition, held high carnival at the Morris county jail yesterday, terrorizing the other inmates, riddling the keeper's office with bullets and falling in their plot for a wholesale jail delivery only because they drank too much liquor after escaping from their cell.

The two prisoners, Eugene Sampson and John Burns, were placed last night in the hospital ward with several other prisoners charged like themselves with minor offenses, Sampson and Burns picked the lock to the ward which leads into the keeper's office, where they broke open a desk and procured a bottle of whiskey that had been taken from a drunken prisoner a few hours before. Having drunk the liquor they broke into a store room, obtained a riot gun and ammunition. Returning to the hospital ward they got behind an iron door and began firing from it. As each shell cost a number of bullets the keeper's office was riddled. At daylight deputies and detectives entered the jail. They found the inmates in a state of terror. Burns and Sampson were asleep in a corner.

THE KIEV MURDER

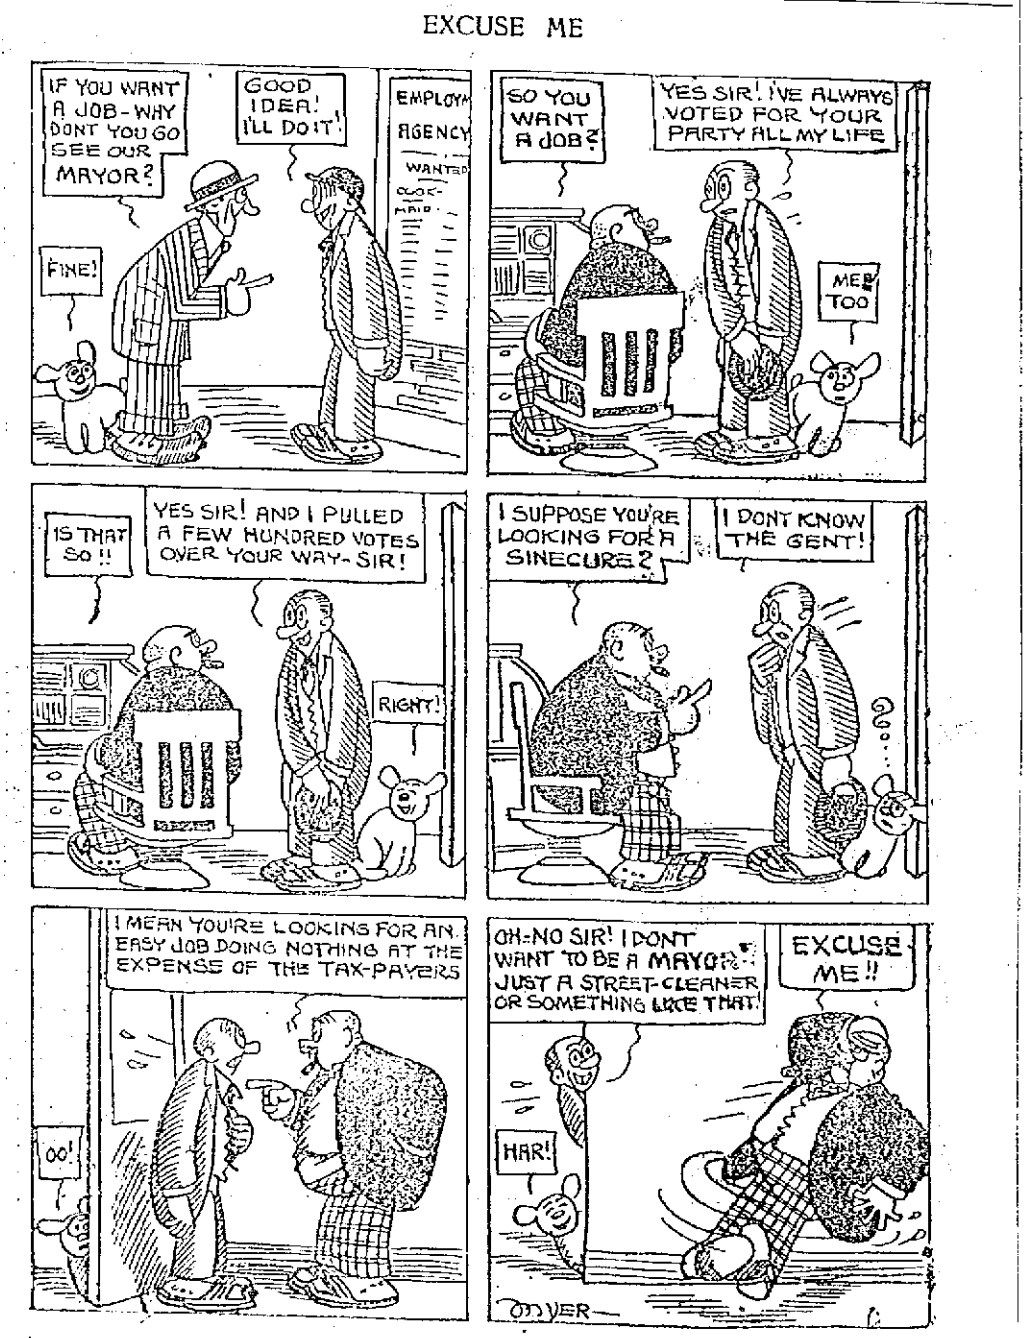

Verdict in Sensational Trial Expected About End of Week

KIEV, Russia, Nov. 5.—The verdict in the trial of Mendel Belliss for the alleged murder of Andrew Yushinsky in March, 1911, is expected to be delivered by the jury about the end of this week. According to the Russian law the verdict of a majority of the jury is valid, and in the event of the jury being equally divided the prisoner obtains the benefit of the doubt.

Elaborate precautions have been taken by the authorities for the prevention of disorders in case Belliss should be acquitted.

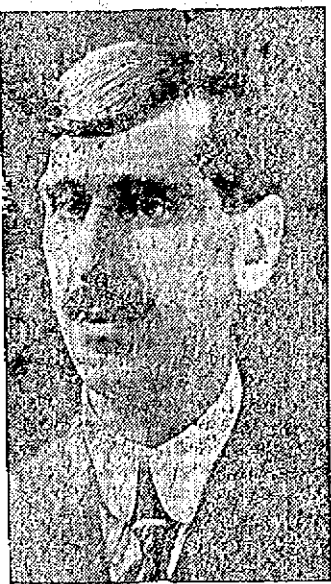

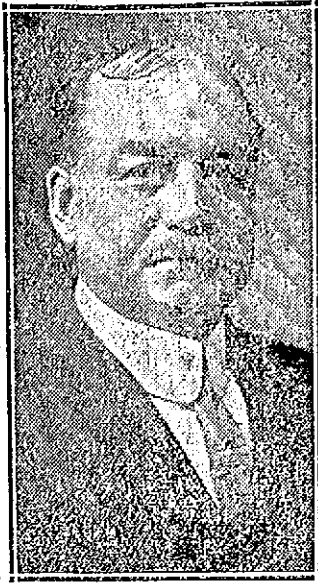

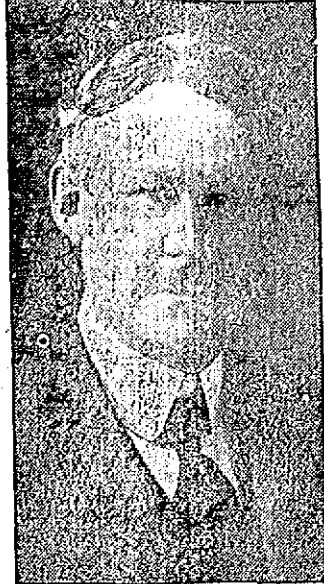

The closing stage of the cross-examination of Father Pranaite, the priest from Turkestan, who is the principal witness for the prosecution, revealed the fact that he could not even translate the title of the treatise he himself had quoted as the source of his anti-semitic allegations.

Counsel for the defense of Belliss quoted chapter and verse in court to show that the object of showing that Father Pranaite's allegations had been taken from earlier mistranslations. The speeches of counsel for the prosecution and defense which began today will, it is understood, occupy at least three days.

LOCAL RESULTS

vote and got good plurality in the district.

Daniel Cosgrove, progressive candidate for lieutenant governor, polled a big vote in Lowell, his native city. Mr. Cosgrove received 4,832 votes as against 4,141 for Edward P. Barry, the democratic candidate and his nearest competitor, August H. Goetting, the republican candidate received 2,915 votes.

It was early decided that Senator Fisher was elected by a large plurality and a little later the returns showed that Senator Draper was re-elected.

The contest for county commissioner was one of absorbing interest and the people had to go home late in the night without knowing who was elected. The returns indicated, however, that the contest finally lay between McCloskey, the democratic candidate, and Barlow, the republican, with a vote so close that neither could claim victory until the complete returns were in.

Today Barlow's election is conceded. In the representative contests there was also much interest shown. In the 13th district especially the fight between Rep. Williams and his opponent, John R. Higgins, was very close. At first some of the politicians in the district figured out that Rep. Williams was elected by two or three votes. When, however, the official vote was reported it showed a slight error which gave the victory to Mr. Higgins.

Out in the 14th district, made up of Dracut and Ward 1 of Lowell, there was also a spirited contest in which John W. Brennan, the democratic candidate, won out, defeating Hon. Joseph Hibbard, republican, and Mr. Cecil Dodge, progressive.

There is much interest locally in the defeat of District Attorney Higgins by his democratic opponent. This was wholly unexpected by the republicans of the county ring but it would appear that the ring has been completely smashed so far as the results of yesterday's election are concerned.

It was a very quiet election night at city hall and the newspaper men and the tabulators in the city clerk's office were not annoyed by the crowd as of yore. The night was fairly mild and the crowd congregated in Merrimack square to watch the returns as they were flashed on the canvas.

The first precinct to come in at city hall was precinct 2 of ward 1 and 16. It was called off to the reporters and other tabulators at 9:07 o'clock. The last precinct was in at a few minutes after ten o'clock and in view of the fact that the ballot was a very difficult one to fold, because of its size, the counters in the different precincts made very good time. Some of the old timers, who knew of the awkwardness of the ballot, allowed that some of the precincts would not reach city hall before midnight.

Appended are the city and district summaries telling the story at a glance.

CITY PLANNING CONFERENCE

All of us have heard of city planning to some extent during the past few months but few there are who understand what it comprises. To most it is a nebulous and impractical movement founded by idealists who would turn our matter of fact cities and towns into Utopias and it is dismissed with a smile and a shrug. Even to those who are believers in the ability of most communities to rise to great heights industrially, aesthetically and efficiently when prompted by the helpful spirit of public co-operation, city planning is a modern movement but little understood. It is, therefore, with pleasure we read in the Boston Chamber of Commerce News the advance notice of a conference which is to be held there under the auspices of that body and the Massachusetts home-state commission on November 18 and 19. If it will achieve its object there will be little uncertainty for the future concerning this movement for, according to the News: "The discussions at the conference will clear up once and for all any haziness that may exist in the lay mind as to what town planning really is and what it may reasonably hope to accomplish."

This conference, which was referred to in an official letter from the governor to the mayor of this city some time ago, will be open to "everyone in Massachusetts interested in municipal or town progress." The meetings will be open to the public. Judging from the nature of the lectures and addresses to be delivered the conference will deal far more with financial and economic problems than with merely "city beautiful" ideals. It seems that the city planning movement as advocated by the official organ of the chamber of commerce, does not involve any large new expenditure but the putting of present available funds and resources to the best advantage, for it says: "Town planning does not involve plunging into unknown expense." This side of the question should recommend the Boston conference to the serious consideration of all the principal cities and towns of the state, and they might advantageously strive to be represented at it.

The practical work of the conference will be divided into various departmental meetings where many widely differing topics relating to city planning will be considered. One of the most important considerations, "Housing Finance" will be presided over by Ex-President Elliott of Harvard college, and will have to do with all phases of the housing problems of our large communities. Another section will be on "Public Health" and will be presided over by Professor Ford of Harvard assisted by many eminent doctors and social workers of international prominence. A third section will be "Public Improvements and city planning," presided over by Bank Commissioner Augustus P. Thorndike, member of the Massachusetts home-state commission. Not the least important section is that on "Public opinion and city planning," presided over by a prominent member of the committee named by the chamber of commerce to consider the question of city planning in connection with the city of Boston. All of the above are very important considerations of vital interest to Lowell and it is to be hoped that the members of the city planning board named by Mayor O'Donnell, or some other civic body will be present at the conference on Nov. 18 and 19.

THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

The Sun sincerely congratulates Hon. David I. Walsh on his triumphant election as governor of the grandest commonwealth in the American Union. It is a great victory for Mr. Walsh and for the party he represents. The citizens of all parties are to be felicitated upon the election of such an able, clean and honorable man as chief executive. The democratic party has elected the greater part of its state ticket and today several democratic candidates find themselves elected without having made any great effort to win. They were merely swept into office on the great tidal wave resulting from democratic harmony and republican disruption.

Candidate Bird made a splendid campaign and spent a large amount of money which he could well afford to do but he has fallen short of the victory although he has the consolation of having placed the progressive party in second place in this state. Candidate Gardner came into the campaign with a chip on his shoulder, a personal platform differing from that of his party and with such handicaps he attempted to lead the republican organization to victory. The result as might be expected, was a crushing defeat to himself and his party. Governor-Elect Walsh made a clean, fair and manly fight and he did so without any expenditure of money beyond his traveling expenses and what paid for the hall in which he appeared. He repudiated the charge that he was the tool of any clique or coterie of politicians and in this those who know him personally will applaud his victory, knowing that it was honestly won and feeling that his governor he will assert his independence sufficiently to convince the people of this commonwealth that the charge was unjust.

We predict that Mr. Walsh will make a good and progressive governor and even at this early day we would advise the democrats not to expect that he can accommodate any great number of place hunters. We believe Mr. Walsh will have the independence to keep the politicians where they belong and to serve the whole people fairly and honestly in accordance with his promise at all times to hold the best interests of the commonwealth as of paramount importance.

MRS. PANKHURST'S FAILURE

Notwithstanding the fact that our immigration authorities gave Mrs. Pankhurst the widest possible advertising on her arrival in the United States, coupled with the widely known reputation that had preceded her, she is not making a financial success of her lecturing tour. As the financial aspect seems to have been the main consideration, her visit to us may be set down as a dismal failure. From the first great fizzle in the Madison Square hall to her latest oratorical efforts for the "cause" she has been received with cold indifference. It is hard to understand the reason for the public attitude especially as America has long been regarded as a treasure house for anything bizarre and extreme. It may be due to a protest against the lawlessness of the unwomanly women she represents and it may be due to her generally known shrewd plans for accumulating funds for some mere kerensine or gunpowder, but whatever the cause, it is a matter for gratification, even to the many women who believe in gaining woman suffrage by dignified means. It would teach a great lesson to extremists everywhere did the people stay away from her lectures entirely and leave it for Mrs. Belmont and her followers to pay out of their own pockets the $1,500 which they have pledged her for every speech she makes.

EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS

Any of the employers of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 who have not insisted on their bringing the certificates which are required by the new juvenile law before they can be legally employed, should lose no time in doing so, for whatever one's opinion of the law in itself may be, it is now a statute and must be lived up to in its entirety before its effects can be accurately judged. It is also well that the school authorities get the records of such, as they must if the requirements are complied with, for a necessary part of the preparation to be made by a minor before securing employment is a school record which shall certify that he has attended school for 130 days since he reached the age of 13. The other essentials as outlined in the circular sent to employers by Superintendent Molloy are: a promise of employment, a physician's certificate, and a birth record. As the school department is ready to attend to the wants of the minors from now until the 15th of the month at the attendance office at city hall, there is no good reason why any of the minors employed locally should not have complied with the new law before that time.

TAXATION LAW SUSTAINED

Massachusetts wins a decisive legal victory in the recent decision of the supreme court to the effect that the corporation tax law which it has imposed on foreign corporations doing business here is constitutional. Incidentally the state has gained an annual income of about $250,000, as well as the million which is involved in suits now pending. Laws somewhat similar which were made by Kansas, Arkansas and Colorado have been nullified by former supreme court decisions, and the general expectation was that a similar fate awaited the Massachusetts law. It has been demonstrated, however, that this law which has been declared unconstitutional when framed elsewhere was a restraint to interstate commerce, while the Massachusetts law is nothing of the kind. Now that the principle of it is upheld in the highest court in the land, there can be little opposition to paying the tax as the amount is comparatively insignificant as relating to individual industries.

Seen and Heard

One of the big railroad lines has a regular form of reporting accidents to animals on its line. Recently a cow was killed and the track foreman drew up the report. In answer to the question, "Disposition of a carcass?" he wrote: "Kind and gentle."

At the bookellers' recent annual convention in New York Irving S. Cobb pointed out the great help to book-selling that advertising affords.

"A book," he said, "gets a good review—the author, perhaps, is called a genius. That review of itself sells perhaps 100 copies. But that review, quoted in a good, big advertisement, might easily sell 10,000 copies."

Mr. Cobb paused, then added impressively:

"The temple of commerce, gentlemen, is supported by columns of advertising!"—New York Post.

Mr. Haldy was very much in evidence today.

It appears that an act of the last legislature forbids the giving of concerts, readings, dances, entertainments of any sort in school halls. If an admission fee is charged, a case has come up in Lynn, in which high school scholars were to give a cantata in high school hall and were to charge an admission. The city collector has been asked if they may lawfully do so. If it turns out that the law forbids entertainments in school halls to which admissions are charged, then various entertainments in the school halls of Lowell will be legislated out.

Ambassador Page, discussing the labor question one day at Garden City said to a reporter:

"The labor question, like the question of capital, will be settled when labor and capital come to understand one another—when, as it were, they learn to speak the same language."

"Bring them together now and they are apt to get on like the French girl and the American girl who met after a correspondence course in one another's tongues."

"Well, how did you get on?" her mother asked the American girl after this conference.

"Oh, fine," was the reply, "Madame, I understood every word she said, and I understood every word I said."

The 19th district in New York city has reason to be proud of its representative, Walter M. Chandler. He is the only genuine bull moose elected on the straight progressive ticket in the east, and on him will fall much of the work of party leadership.

Young, a master of oratory, handsome and a bachelor, Mr. Chandler is an attractive personality—to feminists eyes. During the last campaign in New York, when political slander of all kinds were being shot around the wards, a friend came to Chandler with a long face.

"I am afraid they have got your goat down in 'steenth ward,'" exclaimed the friend dolefully. "Folks down there don't know you are a bachelor and telling them you have eight children and that your wife is suing you for divorce on the grounds of non-support!"—New York Times.

The conversation at a recent entertainment turned to rewarding faithful servants, when Mrs. Post Wheeler, who, of course, is better known as Hallie Ermine Rives, the author, was reminded of an incident that occurred in her beloved south.

Some time ago a Kentucky planter employed an old colored man who lived close to a particular service. Returning a few days later, the planter found the work done very well.

"Come out here, Rastus!" called the planter on driving by the colored man's cabin. "I want to speak to you."

"Yes, sah, hoes! Yes, sah!" responded Rastus, hurrying outside. "Tee comin' right dar!"

"Rastus," said the planter, "you did that work so nicely that I am going to make you a present. Which would you rather have, a ton of coal or a bottle of whiskey?"

"Look heah, boss," chuckled Rastus. "Goan yo' try ter jake well an ole cull'd man. Yo' know heah well dat I allus burn wood."

When Representative Hedlin was conducting his fight last fall down in the south he was assisted by Senator Vardaman of Mississippi. One night a meeting was held in a packed hall and Vardaman began to hold forth and cut the pigeon-wing in regulation style.

He tore the star and wrapped it about him till its folds billowed like a sheet in a laundry tub; he snatched the snowy crests of the mighty mountains and roared with the winds of the storm king.

It was just after the great wreck of the Titanic. One countryman who had been imbibing on account of the catastrophe over a jug of applejack, snored in a hot corner, but just as Vardaman got to describing how he had "seen the great orb of day sink into the west, while huge waves dashed over the ship of state," the fellow partially awoke.

Hearing something about ships and waves he at once thought it was a survivor of the Titanic talking, and, starting to his feet, roared:

"Yes, and I bet you was durned high scared to death, too!"—Washington Star.

RUNNING A PAPER
Jim Jones he was an editor—that's what he tried to be. He bought himself a printing press and started in to run it. Just what there was in it, but when he'd canvassed round some fifteen hundred editors in that same town, he found:

They all knew more about it than he could hope to know. They told him, "You must run her, Jones and run her to and so. Be sure to boom the Baptists—they're sure to help you out. And give the good old Methodists a good salvation shout."

"Give every man a notice—be sure and let him know. Whenever Major Jinks is seen perambulating town. Put in a few free locals for all the stores and give away some free subscriptions if you wish your sheet to live."

Well, Jones, he did just what they said, for fear they'd make a row. But the more he tried to please 'em all, the more they told him how. Until at last he took his book and laid it on the shelf.

Then ran the paper in the ground and followed it himself.

ASK INJUNCTION

Opposing Stockholders Want to Enjoin New Haven Bond Issue

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Nathan Matthews and James F. Jackson, counsel for the petitioners in opposition to the issue of new bonds by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company, will ask the supreme court on Friday for a restraining decree and a temporary injunction forbidding the railroad to proceed with the issue of bonds without regard to the pending proceedings in the supreme court.

The petitioners acting for those stockholders of the New Haven that oppose the issue of the proposed bonds, are fearful lest the road issue the bonds before the supreme court passes in approval or disapproval of the judgment of the public service commission in permitting the issue.

The petitioners have asked the supreme court to pass in review the course and decision of the commission. On Friday, the New Haven company will file its answer to the petition of the stockholders acting on behalf of the minority stockholders. After the company files its answer, the petitioners will urge that an injunction be issued to restrain the corporation from selling bonds pending the decision of the supreme court on the merits of the public service commission's actions.

Notice of Proposed Move

The letter of the petitioners through their attorneys is as follows:

"Charles F. Choate, Jr., Solicitor for the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. Co., 50 State street, Boston, Mass."

"Dear Sir:—Inquiry failing to inform us as to the course which the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company proposes to pursue with reference to the issue of bonds which is now the subject matter of the proceedings in equity, and the approval of which issue by the public service commission, has been brought by petition in review before the supreme judicial court, notice is hereby given that following the filing next Friday of the answer of the company to the petition in review, and an opportunity to examine the same, the petitioners will move for a restraining decree, and that in the suit in equity the complainants will ask for a preliminary injunction."

"This is done in the belief that if, as has been rumored, the company intends to proceed with the issue of these bonds in indifference to the lawfulness of the issue and without regard to the proceedings pending to determine that question, these motions ought to be made in the interest of all concerned and to protect our clients of any share in the consequences of such action on the part of the company."

"Very truly yours,
(Signed) Nathan Matthews,
James F. Jackson,
Solicitors."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

DOCTORS AND FEES

Manchester Mirror: As a class the doctors are noble men. They sacrifice themselves ungrudgingly. They have no sense of progress than any other profession, and they are striving today to reach higher ground. But goods as they are and great as the credit that is due them may be, they are human and seek the fat fees as naturally as bankers seek fat profits. For the majority of human beings the best medical skill is not available simply because they cannot afford to pay for it.

A NAVAL HOLIDAY

Worcester Post: The resolution introduced in the house yesterday requesting the president to undertake negotiations in support of England's suggestion for a "holiday" from naval construction, was received with the vigorous applause that shows how most democrats feel about the big battle-ship program. Speaker Clark took the floor to urge that members give the resolution serious consideration when they return to town.

THE HOODLUMS

Lynn News: Boston is a good deal stirred up just now by the hoodlums of high school boys and boys of high school age. And it is stirring up the published accounts of happenings on street cars and on the streets, the only real reason for making a protest and for taking vigorous action. The flagrant disregard of the rights of others shown by young men of this age, not only in Boston, but in practically every city and town in the state is a thing which does not call any longer for patient endurance. Patience ceases to be a virtue when it accomplishes nothing.

THE ALLEYS

Christian Science Monitor: Some cities are laid out in right angles and some cities have deep blocks. This is especially the case in the middle west of the United States. Late additions to eastern cities are often laid out in like manner. In such cases, the elimination of alleys, according to the Washington plan, would not constitute a serious problem. The contrary, however, would be true of cities laid out irregularly and in small blocks. Each of these questions, in fact, would have to meet this question: It even may be the principal thing is to bring about the elimination of the useless and often worse-than-useless alleys. All parts of cities should be opened up to the light. There should be no back ways unilluminated by the sun by day and by the electricity at night. It has been demonstrated that alleys are costly in many ways that they are unsightly and need be told. The whole country will watch Washington move to rid itself of alleys with real interest.

STILL BEING MISQUOTED

Fall River Globe: Teddy is from all accounts having a corker of a time in South America although we notice that he is complaining that the newspapers there are misquoting him and that he is calling them down for it just as the dogs at home. Probably it is fortunate for them that he hasn't got his big stick along with him.

OLD AND YOUNG

Lawrence American: The great work of the world is being done and it has been done by men of middle life and more. Four-fifths of the business affairs are made by young men. It is ripened experience and judgment that counts in the business world as in any work.

In physical work the older men may be outclassed by the younger ones, but in lines of work calling for skill, steadiness and reliability the older man has the advantage.

KILLED BY CART

Man Was Thrown Under Wheels at Curve and Crushed to Death

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Frank Butch, 23 years old, of 110 Summer street, Westtown, was accidentally killed yesterday in Brighton. He was employed as a teamster and was thrown from his cart, both wheels passing over him, killing him instantly.

He was driving a two-horse tip cart on Commonwealth avenue and was about to turn into the driveway of the Army Officers Club, formerly the All-Boston Golf club. When he went to make the turn one of the wheels struck against the curb stone, upsetting Butch and throwing him to the ground.

He fell down between the horses and the wheels of the cart, which was loaded with gravel, crushed his body.

Dr. Frank Sexton was summoned, but on his arrival pronounced the man dead. Medical Examiner Magrath viewed the body and ordered its removal to the North Grove street morgue.

ROOSEVELT WAS CHEERED

FORMER PRESIDENT ARRIVED AT
BUENOS AYRES TODAY—BAND
PLAYED AMERICAN AIRS

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 5.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today on board the Argentina gunboat Uruguay from Montevideo.

The gunboat was escorted into the harbor by several steamers dressed with flags from stem to stern. As he approached she fired a salute of 21 guns to which the gunboat Rosario replied.

Several delegations of leading political personages and representatives of institutions went on board to greet the distinguished visitor. Col. Roosevelt was met on the quay by the American minister, John W. Garrett, the aide-de-camp of the president, the Argentinian ministers of war and marine, the chief of the protocol, members of the foreign diplomatic corps and a number of high officers of the army and navy.

A military band played the American and Argentinian national anthems and an enormous crowd applauded as Col. Roosevelt stepped ashore.

Col. Roosevelt afterward went with Mr. Garrett to his residence, thousands of people in the streets cheering him as he passed.

Kill Catarrh Germ
Use Booth's Hyomei

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender inflamed mucous membrane infested with catarrh germs—breathe Hyomei. All druggists sell it.

You cannot reach the nooks and crevices of the breathing organs with liquid preparations; there is only one way—breathe a few times daily the germ-destroying air of Booth's Hyomei. It acts directly on the inflamed membranes and destroys the catarrhal germs.

If you suffer from offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, spasmodic coughing, or any other symptoms of catarrh, use Hyomei at once. It will destroy the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs, and give quick and permanent relief, or money refunded by Carter & Sharpe.

The complete outfit including pocket inhaler and bottle of liquid costs $1.00; extra bottles of liquid if later needed, 50 cents.

ELECTION AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 5.—Complete returns from Cleveland's first non-partisan election preferential ballot shows that Mayor Newton D. Baker, Tom L. PHILADELPHIA RESULTS

REPUBLICANS SCORE A VICTORY
OVER FUSION FORCES—WIN
PRACTICALLY EVERY CONTEST

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The victory of the regular republicans here yesterday over the fusion forces led by Mayor Blankenburg, appeared more complete today as further returns were received. The reform element, which had formed a combination with the democrats to wrest control of city councils from the republican organization and also to capture four county offices lost ground in nearly every way. The republicans not only won the county offices by more than 30,000 majority, but increased their membership in councils.

The regular republicans also elected their three county judges on the non-partisan ballot and got a sweeping victory in the fight for municipal court judges, electing all their nine candidates who were also on the non-partisan ballot.

RELEASE OF MANIGAL ORDERED JOHN L. TALKS CARMEN SCORE

Famous Dynamite In-
former Said to Be Ill
at Los Angeles Jail

He Was Chief Witness
Against 33 Union
Officials

JOHN L. MANIGAL

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—The poor health of John L. Manigal, the confessed dynamite maker, was the reason given yesterday by District Attorney D. Fredericks for ordering what is believed to be the permanent release from the county jail of the untried co-worker of the McNamara brothers and chief witness against 33 labor union leaders, who were sentenced to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth for complicity in a nation-wide dynamite conspiracy.

In Poor Health
"Manigal has been in poor health for some time," Fredericks said, "and he has been taken out of jail on the advice of a physician. He may be back in a few days, a few weeks or a few months."
Mr. Fredericks would give no further information.

According to jail attendants, Manigal's appetite and constantly increasing weight indicated that his ill health might have been due to over eating.
They said, however, that he had actually gone to a hospital, but it was to have a surgical operation performed to remove from his forehead a great scar by which he feared former associates might recognize him.

Great Pugilist Prefers
Old-Fashioned Girl to
New Woman

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—"The modern woman?" John L. Sullivan's enormous left fist crashed down on his knee with a force that made the blonde woman who sat looking at him in awestruck wonder jump—"I'm against 'em—dead against 'em."
And then the one and only John L., once idol of the prize fight ring, spend-thrift and all round good fellow—now developed into a gentleman farmer and philosopher, explained.

"Too much society," he growled, "too much thinking about what other men think about her looks, and not enough about what her husband thinks of her for any husband at that. Bachelor girls, huh? My idea of nothing to be." "Now," John L. paused for a moment, found one, and lighted an aged clay pipe. For a moment he puffed rhythmically.
"Now," he finally continued, "gimme the old-fashioned girl like I used to know when I was a youngster. I ain't sayin' anything about morals, mind you. I'm just talking about the way they look at things—at life. But the young men ain't much better at that. Too much education, booze and bel's good fellows."

MAYOR FRENCH WINS

ELECTED FOR FOURTH TERM AT
CONCORD, N. H.—DEFEATED ED-
WARD J. GALLAGHER

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—The municipal election in this city yesterday brought out a heavy vote and resulted in the re-election of Charles J. French for his fourth consecutive term by a vote of 2149 to 1932 for Edward J. Gallagher, the young newspaperman, who put up a game fight for the place.
French carried four of the five wards and won by securing heavy pluralities in wards 4 and 7, the big wards of the city.
James H. Morris was unopposed for a place on the board of tax assessors. Richard A. Brown, Michael J. Lee and Arthur F. Sturtevant were elected members of the board of public works, and Fred M. Dodge, George O. Robinson, Henry M. Richardson, Charles A. Bartley, Augustine B. Ayers, Walter Williamson, Warren W. Lee, William L. Regan and Eugene J. O'Neill, ward aldermen.

G. O. P. NOT DEAD

Result of Election Proves Mr. Bird and His Associates in Error, Says Ex-Lieut. Gov. Robert Luce

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Ex-Lieut. Gov. Robert Luce made the following statement:

"Speaking broadly, the most important result of the election is its proof that Mr. Bird and his associates were in error in saying that the republican party is dead. The laws of this state will still be made by republicans, and no man will be appointed to office without the consent of a republican council."

"About two-fifths of the voters are democrats, as has been the case for many years, both in Massachusetts and in the nation. The other three-fifths, having really the same view on all essential matters of public policy, are for the moment divided over leaders and nonessential details."

"The rank and file of the two factions have no quarrel with each other. Therefore the sooner the leaders of both factions forget the ambition, and personal grievances, the sooner will the full control of affairs in state and nation be returned to the majority of the people."

HELD BANQUET

Mothers Met at First Congregational Church Last Night—Addressed By Carl D. Burt

There was a large attendance at the banquet of the Mothers' association of the First Congregational church, which was held in the vestry of the church and the affair was successful in every way. A feature of the evening was an address by Carl D. Burt of the Lowell high school, and by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. H. Newcomb. Others who spoke were Mr. Charles L. Randall, superintendent of the suburban schools, who spoke on "The Compensation of Being a Married Man"; Deacon D. A. Carter, who took for his subject "The Fun of Being a Grandfather"; and the president, Mrs. George M. Heath, who delivered an address of welcome.

The evening opened with musical selections by Master George Faulkner, Mrs. H. A. Hanson and Mrs. A. E. Duncanson. At the conclusion of the entertainment the large gathering sat down to a beautiful repast, the dinner being followed by speeches. Mr. Burt spoke on "The Training of Parents," and his remarks were very interesting. The meeting closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

A GREAT VICTORY

Mayor Fitzgerald Pleased With the Result—Will Aid President Wilson, He Says

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Mayor Fitzgerald had the following to say last night on the result of the state election:
"This overwhelming victory places a great responsibility on every democrat elected to state office, but under the masterly leadership qualities of David I. Walsh, with his splendid personal integrity, I look to see a solid party front on measures of great importance to the people of this state."

"The democratic party of Massachusetts has the greatest opportunity in its history, and I look to see it make such a record as to deserve and receive future success."

"The great plurality to the ticket is a splendid endorsement of the Wilson administration, that must strengthen the hands of our president in the great fight he is making for democratic principles at the national capital."

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The Boston Elevated company scored yesterday at the hearing before the special board of arbitrators in Ford Hall, when Chairman J. J. Storrow of the board reaffirmed a ruling which sustained the objections made Monday by counsel for the employees to the introduction of evidence by the road relative to the wage scale in force on railways outside Massachusetts.

Chairman Storrow ruled that the Elevated company should confine its evidence on this point to roads within the boundaries of the state and Arthur James H. Vahey went on record as concurring in the ruling. The third member of the board, J. L. Richards, dissented, stating in his opinion that the board should hear all possible evidence on the subject of wages.

Second Vice-President Matthew C. Brush, the witness who was to have testified on that point, resumed the stand yesterday and read figures setting forth the rate of wages on several railways operating in Massachusetts. It was the company's purpose to show through these figures that its wage scale compared favorably with the other roads named.

The witness testified: That the rate of 25.50 per hour now paid by the Elevated to first year men is higher than the rate paid by any other railway company in Massachusetts; that the maximum rate of 28.50 per hour paid by the Elevated is higher than the maximum rate paid by any other railway company in Massachusetts; and that the rates paid by the Elevated during the last three years in the service are higher than those paid by the Bay State Street Railway Company, the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Company, the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company and the Blue Hill Street Railway Company.

Vice-President Brush was cross-examined at length by Atty. Feeney, C. H. Hill, chief of the maintenance department, explained the classification system in the Elevated shops and the piece-work system. He asserted that both were necessary.

Witness was prepared to show by tabulated lists the number of men employed, rates of wages paid and the different classifications and conditions in shops gleaned from August pay rolls of the Bay State, Boston & Albany, N. H., Rhode Island, Worcester Consolidated and Springfield road shops, when Atty. Feeney objected. Counsel for the carmen declared that the Rhode Island shop and the Nassau, N. H. shop of the Bay State were outside of the state and that shop conditions or other data obtained from them should not be considered any more than the wage scales of roads or traction companies outside of the state.

The board upheld Mr. Feeney's objections and decided that the ruling regarding evidence of wages of roads outside of the state also applied to shop conditions and other data. As a result of this ruling Atty. Nichols for the company requested an adjournment in order that the tabulated lists may be rearranged to comply with the new ruling. The hearing will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning in Kingsley hall, Ford building.

SULZER WON OUT

Ousted Governor of New York Elected to the Assembly

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—William Sulzer, ousted from the governorship of New York last month by verdict of a high court of impeachment was elected to the state assembly yesterday from the sixth district by a sweeping plurality, estimated at 2000 or more.

He ran on the progressive ticket and apparently has polled more votes than his republican and democratic opponents combined. His old neighbors on the East Side rallied strongly to his support, and it was early apparent that he had swamped the opposition.

There was jubilation unbounded in the former governor's headquarters as the count began to record his victory. Sulzer himself was all smiles. He regarded his triumph as a personal vindication, he said, and issued a statement thanking his supporters and commending Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, who, he declared, was condemned by the vote that gave the district William Sulzer as its representative at Albany.

"The people of the Sixth Assembly district," said Sulzer, in his statement, "think better of me than of Mr. Murphy. They know why Mr. Murphy removed me from the governorship; they know when Mr. Murphy tried to bribe me I refused to be bribed; they know when Mr. Murphy threatened me I defied his threats. The voters have now condemned Mr. Murphy; reversed the judgment of his high court of infamy, and vindicated me by the verdict of the polls, which in the last analysis, is the opinion of mankind."

"From Mr. Murphy's high court of infamy, I appealed to the higher court of public opinion. Mr. Murphy says that there was no appeal from his court but Mr. Murphy was mistaken, and he knows now that the judgment of the people can reverse the judgment of any court."

LARCENY CASE IN COURT

MAN SENT TO JAIL FOR THREE MONTHS—SEVERAL CASES DISPOSED OF

Welcomed into the house as a long lost brother might be received, treated to the best that the cuisine afforded and lodged for the night on the downy bed, the appreciation of William M. Markey for the hospitality shown him by Antoine Dupont resulted in his stealing the latter's watch and chain, while his host slept peacefully beside him. Markey was in court this morning charged with larceny.

The complaint informed the court of the manner in which the defendant was treated by him and the way in which guest and watch disappeared after the night's entertainment. He was very certain that the watch disappeared by Deputy Downey was the timepiece which he lost on the night in question.

Dupont said that the watch was stolen from him the latter part of August, but that he could not round up the defendant until recently. He found out a few days ago that Markey was working on a farm in Draught and immediately got out a warrant for his arrest. Officer Cullinane of Draught arrested the defendant and testified that he had no talk with him about the theft.

A local pawnbroker testified that the watch produced in court was pawned at his place on September 2, for the sum of two dollars. He positively identified the defendant as the man who "stuck up" the watch.

The defendant asserted that he did not steal the watch but that the timepiece belonged to him all the time. He bought it, he said, from a man named Mitchell in North Pelham. A ticket was presented to the court which testified that a local jeweler had repaired the watch for Dupont only a short time before the theft was committed. This fact non-plussed the defendant but he declared that he was innocent.

Judge Enright found Markey guilty and ordered him committed to jail for a term of three months. The defendant had no remarks to offer as he was led back to his seat in the dock.

Assault Case

The case of Hugo Hill, over which quite a lot of interest was aroused at its last appearance before the court, was dismissed today, civil settlement having been made between the parties involved. Hill was charged with assault and battery upon Joseph Galvin, whom the police claimed went to the hospital for a fortnight's stay as a result of a kick by Hill.

Arthur Whitehead, a man with only one eye, pleaded guilty in a loud voice to the charge of vagrancy preferred against him. He was sent up to the state farm at Bridgewater.

Max Weiss was charged with larceny and asked for a continuance. This was granted and the case will come up for trial next Saturday morning. Joseph J. Stanley was fined $15 for drunkenness and Probation Officer Statley had three releases of first offenders.

ARTHUR G. LEVEILLE,
Elected President

A banquet and a theatre party marked the tenth anniversary of the founding of the A. G. Pollard Employees Mutual Benefit Association last night, the first number on the program being carried out at Middlesex hall, while the other was held at the B. F. Keith theatre. A new board of officers was also elected for a year and a very pleasant evening was spent.

In the early evening the members of the association and their wives gathered at Middlesex hall, where a business meeting was held with President James P. Richards in the chair. A round business was transacted and the annual report of the treasurer was read, showing the association to be in a good financial condition. The election of officers resulted as follows: Arthur G. Leveille, president; Basil H. Miller, vice president; Justin H. Kimball, treasurer; Edward Desjardis, collector; John Orrell and Chas. A. Delaronde, auditors. The new officers were immediately installed into office and this was followed by a banquet, those addressing the gathering being Messrs. Harry G. Pollard, James P. Richards, Arthur G. Leveille and many others.

At 8 o'clock the entire party wended their way to the B. F. Keith theatre, where seats had been reserved for them in the orchestra circle. The program was thoroughly enjoyed, and all

Fusionists Elect Mitchell
Mayor by a Plurality
of 110,000

Democrats Also Lose
Control of State Assembly—Sulzer Wins

JOHN PURROY MITCHELL,
Mayor-Elect of New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Each successive recapitulation early today affirmed the crushing defeat of Tammany forces in yesterday's elections in this state. The organization was not only engulfed in a plurality of 121,209 votes with which the fusionists elected John Purroy Mitchell, mayor of New York city but in the state the democrats who had been in control for three years lost the assembly. The result is generally read as a rebuke to Tammany control of the democratic party of the state. The vote for mayor follows:

	McCall	Mitchell	Russell
Manhattan	103,756	130,453	11,763
Bronx	25,304	46,941	5,676
Brooklyn	77,905	136,596	11,560
Queens	20,299	32,451	2,853
Richmond	6,912	8,417	217
	234,676	355,555	32,109

Sulzer Elected

William Sulzer was elected to the assembly, less than three weeks having intervened since he was removed from the governor's chair. Many of the legislators who voted to impeach him met defeat. On the basis of incomplete returns it was estimated that the next assembly will be composed of 55 republicans, 17 progressives and 15 democrats. Many of the latter were said to be men of progressive or independent tendencies.

Fusionists Victorious

The fusionists won the mayoralty contest in New York with a plurality almost as large as that which the Tammany chieftain, Charles F. Murphy, had said yesterday would elect Edward E. McCull. Returns were still lacking from a few districts early today but a Mitchell plurality of 110,000 to 115,000 was conceded. The vote of the borough of Brooklyn completely showed a contribution of $5,000 toward this plurality, or more than half the advantage which spelled the Tammany rout, while Manhattan gave Mitchell a plurality of about 26,000. With much reduced pluralities, but safe margins, the fusionists elected William A. Prendergast, comptroller of the city and George McManey, president of the board of aldermen. They kept out of Tammany hands the presidency of the three principal boroughs, Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx and thus increased the anti-Tammany majority on the board of estimate, which controls the city's expenditures. The fusion vote on the board will be 14 to Tammany's 2. A fusion majority in the board of aldermen was elected.

"Big Tim's" Successor

Two democratic congressmen were elected in the city, from the 13th and 20th districts. From the former George W. Loft was chosen to succeed the late Timothy D. Sullivan. Jacob Cantor was elected in the 20th to succeed Francis Burton Harrison, resigned.

FOOTBALL GAME

Lawrence Academy and Lowell Textile battled today on the Moody street campus in their scheduled football game, the game starting late on account of the visiting team's inability to make good connections.

Textile looked to be heavier than Lawrence Academy although the Academy team was very fast and had a galaxy of trick plays ready to spring at any point in a contest. Captain Fisher asserted just before time was called for the kick-off, that his men should beat the visitors by at least two touchdowns.

CAUSES GREAT DISTRESS

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLE

It gives me great pleasure to recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to anyone suffering from bladder trouble. For four years I was troubled by hemorrhages from the bladder and was not able to get any doctor who could help me. I was in such shape that sleep at night was impossible on account of distressing symptoms. While bending over I would be stricken with such a pain that it was impossible for me to straighten up. Mr. Henry, one of our leading druggists, advised Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root; although I never had any faith in patent medicines, as a last resort I purchased a dollar bottle of Swamp-Root. I noticed a decided change and after using two bottles I was completely cured. It seemed remarkable that I should be cured so quickly after being ill so long. But since this took place nearly two years ago, I have never been troubled and would highly advise any one suffering from the same trouble to at least give Swamp-Root a trial and I think the results will be the same as mine.

Yours very truly,

THOMAS A. BENNETT,
Greensburg, Indiana.
Personally appeared before me this 14th day of February, 1913, Mr. T. A. Bennett, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

The New Furs

This is Pre-eminently a Fur Season—Furs never were so favored by Fashion's dictates—were never so cleverly wrought into garments of real beauty—were never so wearable as right now.

There's a new beauty in Furs this season—it's the beauty of a new fur craft. Fur garments are no longer warm but clumsy—They are beautiful and warm. The artist no longer treats Fur as Fur simply from the old-fashioned viewpoint, but classes it as a material—a fabric, if you will, and as a fabric he shapes it and drapes it—he plaits it and embroiders it—he uses it in combinations and in a hundred ways he takes advantage of its richness, its color, its fluffiness and its warmth.

The result of this new attitude of the artist is that Furs are as graceful as velvet, as adaptable as satins, as versatile as silks. They adorn the figure, not conceal it. They warm the aesthetic sense as well as the body.

Dependable Furs Only

Jordan Marsh Company Furs are dependable—in price, value, style and wearing quality. That means good buying founded on some generations of experience. It means thorough knowledge of skins and the new methods of tanning, which have made the fur of today softer, lighter, more workable and more beautiful. It means knowledge of makers and styles, and finally it means honest grading and honest pricing.

We sell Furs for exactly what they are and at fair prices.

The Fur Coats

This year compare with the most beautiful opera and evening coats in points of elaborateness, draped effects and ornamentation. A greater variety of furs is used—the garment is lighter in weight, but has greater elegance of shape. The prices range from $50.00 to $2200.00.

Automobile Fur Coats

We are showing the best and most dependable for both women and men. The latest idea is to have them made up exactly alike save for size and weight, so that they can be bought in pairs. Prices range from $35.00 to $550.00.

Fur Wraps and Sets

In all the most desirable furs and at various prices. The scarfs show the new mode—the muffs are longer than they are wide, and gathered gracefully at the top when worn. Prices range from $15.00 to $500.00.

FURS MOST USED ARE

Fur buyers now find much wider selection, greater number of exclusive pieces and garments than those who delay for a month or even a week. At any rate, you should see the exposition of New Furs NOW, while at its best.

WIFE DESERTION

Some Homes Justify
Men Running Away,
Says Mrs. Van Wyck

LACROSSE, Wis., Nov. 5.—"Some of the homes I have seen almost justify the husband in running away from them," declared Mrs. Katherine Van Wyck of Milwaukee, president of the state conference on charities and corrections, in concluding today her annual report before the convention. "The wife who does not know her job," she said, "must take her share of the blame for the many cases of wife desertion."

To teach woman her work, she advocated compulsory domestic courses in the public schools.

Mrs. Van Wyck argued strongly for a federal fugitive husband law similar in operation to the Mann white slave law. She would have the national government pursue the fleeing husband and send him to the federal penitentiary. As an accompanying remedy she urged legislation wiping out, if possible, the practice of tramps riding on trains and she said that in practically every tramp was to be found a runaway husband.

BRYAN REFUSES TO TALK

WOULD NOT DISCUSS THE MEXICAN SITUATION IN ANY OF ITS PHASES TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Secretary Bryan today flatly refused to discuss the Mexican situation in any of its phases. The secretary of state was asked particularly about one published report that General Huerta had made a reply to a recent communication from the United States and he refused to confirm or deny it.

RETIRED PRIEST TO SELL PAPERS
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Rather than continue to accept $50 a month from a benevolent society for pensioned priests, the Rev. Michael S. Pyphard, for 36 years pastor of the St. Joseph's

Polish Catholic church, is going to sell newspapers on Chicago's streets. Yesterday he came here from Des Plaines, Ill., where he has been in retirement since last May, and decided to put up a news stand at State and Madison streets. This inscription will hang above the stand:

"This is Father Pyphard, who for 36 years served his people in St. Joseph's parish at Armitage avenue and 14th street, in South Chicago."

The retired priest declared that it is not just to the benevolent society to take its money when he is able to work.

PLAYERS' FRATERNITY

AMERICAN LEAGUE WILL NOT CON-SIDER DEMANDS TOMORROW,
SAVS JOHNSON

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The American league will not consider the demands of the ball players' fraternity at its meeting tomorrow. President Johnson this afternoon said that the league had never been asked formally by the fraternity to grant any reforms or to make any changes in the contracts and that while the national commission had referred to each clubowner a synopsis of the changes desired by the men the program of the meeting called for no discussion of it. The commission probably will take action on the demands ahead of either the American or National leagues if any action is taken according to Johnson.

ARREST FAKE COP

Probation Officer Follows Story of Oppression in Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—For weeks complaints were taken to Miss Anne Connelly, probation officer of the Adams Street court, Brooklyn, that girls under her care were being made the victims of extortion by a pretended policeman. Somehow detectives failed to catch him, but a woman victim trapped him.

She is Nellie Farrell, twenty-five years old, of No. 397 Baltic street, who was placed on probation a month ago. He calls himself Thomas Scott, twenty-four years, of No. 434 Sixty-first street, Brooklyn.

The Farrell woman says that last Sunday night Scott met her at Lloyd and Livingston streets and threatened her with arrest if she did not give him $10. She told him she had only $5. He seized her arm, told her he was a detective and started to take her toward the police station. Two blocks further on he let her go, she says, on her promise that she would meet him on Duffield street Monday night with the other $5.

She told a friend, Lillian Corbett. The two women got five $1 bills and took their numbers. They met Scott in a luncheon on Duffield street Monday night and gave him the bills, they say. He had with him Irene Devolis, twenty-three years old, who lives in the flat-house where he dwells. It is said Scott passed the money to her.

When he left the place the two women followed him. They called Patrolman Charles Eason, who caught Scott on the "L" stairs.

Magistrate Walsh held Scott in $2,000 for examination. He dismissed a charge of vagrancy against Miss Devolis when that young woman told him that several days ago she had taken out a license to wed Scott.

"I am thankful he is arrested," she told the court. "I was deceived by him. I thought him a respectable business man. It is a narrow escape I have had."

SUPERIOR COURT SESSION

Interesting Insurance Case on Trial Today — Prudential Life Insurance Company Defendant

The superior court opened this morning and suits brought against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and against the Prudential Life Insurance Co. by Alex. Smith, executor of the will of the late John Kaspar of Lowell, were called for trial. Butler, Cox, Murelle and Bacon of Boston represented the Metropolitan, with Mr. Bacon trying the case, while the Prudential company was represented by C. T. Cottrell. John W. McEvoy appeared for the plaintiff. The two cases are tried as one.

In the action against the Metropolitan Co., the plaintiff in his declaration stated that the defendant made a policy of $500 on John Kaspar late of Lowell, payable on the death of said Kaspar to his estate, that the conditions of this policy were fulfilled, Kaspar died on or about September 7, 1911, and proceeds of his death were submitted to the company together with the policy, and payment demanded. The company refused payment.

The defendant company answering denied the allegations made by the plaintiff, stating that if issuance of the policy was made, it was done in consideration of and reliance upon certain representations by Kaspar which were known to him to be false and which he made with the purpose of deceiving the company, and which did deceive the company. Defendant stated that Kaspar said that the statements made by him to the medical examiner were true whereas they were false, and therefore the policy is void. Further, defendant in answering the declaration, stated that another person was fraudulently substituted for Kaspar in starting the application and submitting it to the medical examiner, that facts were concealed and that as a consequence the policy was void. In an amended answer, the defendant company changes the word "declaration" in a part of the answer to "application."

The declaration in the action of Smith vs. Prudential company, is practically the same as that in the case against the Metropolitan, claiming a policy of $500 issued on Kaspar and not paid on the latter's death. In answering the defendant denies the ma-

ADOPTS "BOY" 33

Woman Will Seek a Court Sanction to Change His Name

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Mpherville, the longing for a son to call her own, has led to the application of Mrs. Arthur L. Judis, through her husband, for permission to adopt H. J. Anderson, aged 33 years, who has lived with them at their home, 1632 Dublin street, for many years.

"I merely wanted to call Harry my own boy," said Mrs. Judis, explaining the odd circumstance of the adoption of a 33-year-old "boy."

"He has lived with us as such for a number of years, and we wished that he be treated with all the rights of a child of our own and come into the inheritance of our property."

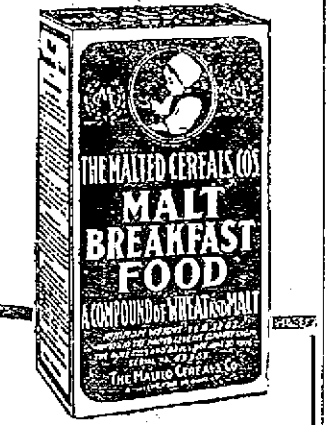

"It isn't extraordinary for a woman to want to adopt a child. Women want children. Denied any of her own, a woman who is able and who has the instinct of motherhood will frequently adopt a child to adopt with her own home who had lived with us for years, and to whom both myself and husband were attached as to a son. I see no reason why the mere fact that he was 33 years old should be allowed to deter us from making him our own."

Mrs. Judis said that she had always wanted a child, and that she had finally decided to adopt one. In case the court permits the adoption, which is probable, Anderson will have his name changed to that of his foster father. Mr. Anderson is in the employ of the Life Insurance company of Virginia.

Mrs. Judis has for years been interested in philanthropic work, and has been active in causes which come up before the juvenile court. Particularly her interest centered in children whose parents either through wilful neglect or inability failed to properly provide for them. Her heart was always with children, and she was instrumental in helping scores of small waifs to good homes.

REWICKING Made Easy

EASY wicking is only one of the many improvements that make the new Perfection Oil Heater (Triangle trade mark) superior to any oil heater ever made before.

Wick and carrier are in one. Just turn up the old wick, slip it out and drop another in place.

This New Model Perfection Heater is smokeless, odorless and economical. The shape of the font, wide and shallow, allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures an even, glowing heat even when the font is almost empty. The font holds more than a gallon of oil and an indicator shows the amount of fuel left at a glance.

There is no smoke or smell with a Perfection. The automatic-locking flame-spreader prevents smoking. No gallery to unscrew, or catch oil and dust.

Made with vitreous blue enamel or plain steel drums. Ornamental, inexpensive, lasts for years. Easily cleaned and moved about.

Locally yesterday's election was one dumbfounded even the most astute po-seem meagre return? Let us see. Let us reason.

Money goes on interest at once. It is subject to check at all times. It is credited every month. What better can one do with idle money, money awaiting deposit in Savings Banks, awaiting investment or awaiting distribution. (Incidentally be it said there is no better, no safer place for money today, than a LOWELL SAV-

Think this over twice.
Interest at 2 per cent. average daily balances $500 or more. Account always subject to check; interest credited each month. It is all good, good all the way.

was it known that Walsh was the leader by a substantial majority and that Bird was second.
The manner in which the republican vote of former years was split up between the republican and progressive parties rendered it very difficult to predict results. Governor-elect Walsh carried the city by a plurality of 1507 over Bird while the latter led Gardner by 2327. It was apparent early in the day that there was a stampede of the republicans to the Bird camp with the hope of defeating Mr. Walsh. This, however, accomplished only the further humiliation of Mr. Gardner by reducing his vote to the low figure of 1814.

John J. Hogan, candidate for councillor, carried the city by a very large majority.

for the school board, and there are candidates galore for these positions.

WALSH GOVERNOR
BY 53,691 VOTES

Barry Elected Lieutenant Governor by 26,484 — Donahue, Secretary of State; Mansfield, Treasurer; Pope,
Auditor and Boynton, Atty. General
—Gain in Legislature

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The extent of the democratic gains in yesterday's state election was not fully realized until after a recapitulation of the figures today. Then it was found that Lieutenant Governor David I.
Walsh had been elevated to the governorship in a four-cornered contest by a plurality of 53,691. This is the largest plurality ever accorded a democratic candidate for the office.

Complete returns give the vote for governor as follows:

DAVID I. WALSH (Democrat) 189,368
CHARLES S. BIRD (Progressive) 126,677
AUGUSTUS P. GARDNER (Republican) 116,314
EUGENE N. FOSS (Independent) 20,815

The new governor carried with him into office every democratic candidate on the state ticket with the possible exception of attorney general. This is another result unique in Massachusetts political history.
Edward H. Barry is the new lieutenant governor. The vote for this office follows:

EDWARD P. BARRY (Democrat) 175,754
AUGUST H. GOETTING (Republican) 149,270
DANIEL COSGROVE (Progressive) 103,804

The other democratic state officers chosen are:

Secretary of state, Frank J. Donahue (re-elected); treasurer, Frederick W. Mansfield; auditor, Frank H. Pope.

The contest for attorney general between Attorney James M. Swift (republican) and Thomas J.
Boynton (democrat) was close but the latter won by a slight margin.

Executive Councillors Elected

Dist. 1.—Eben S. Keith, R., Bourne.
Dist. 2.—Guy A. Ham, R., Boston.
Dist. 3.—Timothy J. Buckley, D., Boston.
Dist. 4.—Alexander McGregor, R., Malden.
Dist. 5.—Edward G. Frothingham, R., Haverhill.
Dist. 6.—John J. Hogan, D., Lowell.
Dist. 7.—Daniel E. Denny, R., Worcester.
Dist. 8.—Frank A. Mosner, R., Amherst.

The republican grip on the legislature was weakened. That party after a control of years lacks a majority in each branch. The progressives who score heavy gains hold the balance of power. The senate shapes up as follows: Republicans 20, democrats 18, progressives 2. The house stands republicans 117, democrats 103, progressives 11, independents 2, socialists 1. The democrats also made slight gains in the executive council.

The outstanding feature of the election, in addition to the magnitude of the democratic victory was the strength shown by the progressives. For the first time since the republicans came into power as a party in this state their nominee for governor was forced into third position, Mr. Bird leading Congressman Gardner by over 10,000 votes. The progressive gains in membership in the legislature also give them a strategic position in both house and senate.

Another point of interest was the small vote given Governor Foss. Mr.
Foss, once a republican and three times elected chief executive as a democrat, entered the contest very late in the campaign as an independent.
The political complexion of the Massachusetts delegation in congress was not changed by the special election in the third district. Calvin Paige (republican) being chosen to succeed the late Congressman William Wilder. Mr.
Paige received a plurality of 155 votes over M. Fred O'Connell (democrat) while the third candidate, Stephen M.
Marshall, (progressive) was far behind.

Statement of Gov.-Elect Walsh
Gov.-Elect David I. Walsh last night gave out this statement:
"My first feeling, in the hour of victory, is not one of exultation, but rather of the great responsibility which has come to me today at the hands of my fellow citizens. To each of them I know the pledges I have been making during the campaign—to serve them earnestly, faithfully, devotedly.

"In the election of today I see the mandate of the people for progressive government. In the fulfillment of the aspirations of the people I ask the assistance of all progressives of whatever party allegiance.

"Though nominated by the democratic party and elected as its candidate, I shall not forget that the chief executive of Massachusetts is the representative of all the people of the commonwealth.

"To the administration at Washington and to President Wilson the result of our Massachusetts election will, I feel sure, give great encouragement.

"I desire to express to the democratic party my heartfelt appreciation of its confidence and of its solid support. The returns show that I must also have

DEMOCRATS WON

Successful in Indiana and Illinois in Yesterday's Elections

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 5.—In the several elections in Indiana and Illinois yesterday the democratic candidates generally won out.

In Indianapolis Joseph Bell, democrat, for mayor was successful by a plurality of approximately 5000. The republican and progressive candidates for mayor ran about an even race.

Of the large cities in Indiana, Evansville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Muncie, Logansport and Anderson will have democratic administrations, while in South Bend and Lafayette the citizens' tickets were successful.

For the first time in the history of Vincennes, the oldest town in Indiana, the republicans were successful, electing a mayor and other city officials.

In 24 municipalities of southern Illinois women who exercised the right of franchise for the first time in the state voted in the ratio of 4 to 1 in opposition to saloons.

Of 24 cities and towns voting under the township unit law the "dry" won or retained 15, the "wets" held five and there was a tie in one.

QUICK SERVICE OF SEN STEREOPTICON APPRECIATED BY THOUSANDS IN MERRIMACK SQUARE

Last night a crowd of over 10,000 people assembled at Merrimack square to get the election returns from The Sun's stereopticon. The Sun canvas was spread over Keith's electric sign and could be seen from Dows' drug store or any other part of the square and was greatly appreciated. The election results and all the closer contests were first announced from The Sun office and the interested crowd remained until the general results throughout the state and in New York were fully understood. The one contest upon which the people got no final information was that of county commissioner, although it appeared early in the evening that the contest lay between McCloskey, the democratic candidate and Barlow, the republican. There was keen interest manifest in the vote for governor and it was early known that Walsh was the leader with Bird second. This raised the hopes of the progressive party that Bird would be elected and the progressives showed great enthusiasm when the returns indicated that Bird was leading Gardner by a wide margin and close on the heels of Walsh. In the contest for lieutenant governor, Dan Cosgrove got a great vote in the city and many of his friends were confident of his election, but he happened to be in the wrong party. Mr. McIntire's vote as candidate for county commissioner also encouraged the progressive party and for a time it was thought that he would be elected; but while he ran splendidly in Lowell, his vote fell off in the other parts of the county, thus giving his opponents the lead.

It was a good sized crowd that packed the square last night and the service of The Sun stereopticon and the rapidity with which the returns were sent out were greeted with applause and commendation. The Sun had a sketch artist making slides and cartoons on some of the comical features and these helped to console those who were depressed by the news that their party or their political friends had been defeated. The Sun has again to thank Manager Pickett of Keith's theatre for the courtesy of offering the free use of his big sign for the screen on which to throw the returns.

REFUSES TO RUN A RUMMAGE SALE FOR CHURCH PURPOSES—MIGHT SPREAD DISEASE

The license commission held a short meeting this morning at its quarters in the Market street police station. The principal business under discussion was the petition of Fred H. Whitney, acting for the Highland Congregational church, for a second hand clothing dealer's license.

This license was asked for so that the church might hold rummage sales. One of the rules of the board reads as follows: "No person or persons shall conduct a rummage sale in any dwelling or any other place without obtaining a permit from the board of health."

Agent Bates of the board of health recommended that Mr. Whitney be given leave to withdraw his petition, and the suggestion was acted upon. The objection which the board of health raises to the conducting of rummage sales, so-called, is the danger of spreading of contagious diseases.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place Monday at St. Margaret's church when Mr. Frederick W. Keefe and Miss Anna A. Moran were united in marriage. The best man was Mr. John L. Hogan, brother of the bride, while Miss Elizabeth F. Keefe, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The bride was charmingly attired in a traveling gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids wore blue hennepine and carried Kilmarnock roses. After a reception and a wedding breakfast served by the D. L. Pace company, Mr. and Mrs. Keefe left for New York where they will journey to Old Point Comfort, Va., Washington, Philadelphia, and on returning will reside on Westford street. They will be at home to their many friends after Dec. 1.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Carl Henry and Nellie Francis, makers of "nifty nonsense" at the B. F. Keith theatre this week, are distinctly different from the average run of comedy makers. Henry is undoubtedly one of the greatest of improvisers, funny men in existence, and Miss Francis proves one of the resilient of foils to him. They constitute one of the vaudeville teams which never gives enough. Encore after encore is demanded of them, and yet they leave their audiences wishing more. "A Country Bride," an amusing little comedy based on real life, is perfectly presented by Miss Francis Stevens and company. It is one of the very best of vaudeville comedies yet played here. Ruth Becker, a charming singing comedienne, is interestingly considered the best in her line yet seen here. Willard's Temple of Music, which tops the bill, is a spectacular music making device, which will readily please. McCormick & Wallace, in a new ventriloquist act, Quigg & Nickerson, comedy musical duo, Van Cello, foot balancer, and the Pathe Weekly are the other excellent features of the bill. Good shows may be secured in advance. Phone 28.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

No better comedy has been given on a local stage than is found in "The Girl in the Taxi," the week's presentation by the Merrimack Square theatre Stock company. Miss Grace Young as "The Girl" is as enjoyable as she has been in any of her best characters, while Walter Scott Weeks and John Charles are found in parts that are especially good. Howard Sidney is funny as the elder Stewart, the individual who poses as an ideal husband and a stern father, but who has a decided liking for a night now and then in the white-light district of a big city. The staging of the play is very well done and the comedy of it—and there is a full measure of it—is handled cleverly. The photo-plays between the acts are among the best shown, including comedy attractions, dramatic offerings and scenic creations that are instructive as well as entertaining.

OPERA HOUSE

"In the Shadows" the latest reel feature from the house of Warner, which is being shown for the first time on any screen at the Opera House today deals with the real life plays in the lives of three people living in the same house. Rodrigo, a sculptor of great promise, is a warm friend of Jacques and his wife, who has taken up sculpturing and prevails upon her husband to pose for her model of the primitive man. He contracts a heavy cold and when he attempts to sing the part of Pagliacci in the opera of that name, his voice breaks and the disgrace unbalances his mind. He disappears and after an interval of time his baby is born and the mother and child are cared for by Rodrigo, the faithful friend. One day he wanders into the opera house where he has failed so miserably, and the familiar surroundings restore his reason and he rushes home. Believing his wife, who has become blind through overwork, has married Rodrigo, he departs heartbroken.

Later, he gets another chance to sing the lead in "Pagliacci" and his wife and Rodrigo who are in the audience witness his triumph. Shortly afterwards there is a joyful reunion of the husband and wife, who have further cause to rejoice over the success of an operation which restores the sight in the wife's eyes. Come early and tell your friends and neighbors about this Warner feature in which Miss Gene Gaudier and Jack Clark do such splendid work.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Songs of the sunny south and the typical dancing of southern darkeys are the combination offered by the Playhouse in its principal number this week—the nine Africaners. The musical Norries are also a hit, with their 12x2 band. Mr. and Mrs. Norris carry equipment which permits the playing of 12 musical instruments simultaneously. With the real band effect, Norman & Norman are original in their dancing and singing. Willie Cliff, Bailey, the barrel acrobat, has a novel act, always makes a hit. The moving pictures are realistic and portray interesting stories.

Amateur night—Friday night—Lowell amateurs will be given an opportunity to perform, and their friends will be out in large numbers to give encouragement. Some theatres are supplied with a "hook" for the misfits, but Manager Tabbutt has not added this to his equipment, and for the present, at least, all amateurs are secure.

THE KASINO

Doyle's orchestra tonight. The Kasino will hold forth tonight, tomorrow night and Friday night with Doyle's orchestra performing. Doyle is a new organization made up of experienced musicians who furnish variety as well as quality. From now on, Doyle's will play at the Kasino on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights with Miner's playing Saturday afternoon and evening and Monday night.

DEMIES WIN AT BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Owing to the long and cumbersome ballot, returns from yesterday's elections were slow in coming in.

The indications, however, were that Blair Lee, democrat, was elected to the senate by a plurality of about 30,000 and that the democratic state ticket would do nearly as well.

CONGRATULATES WALSH

PRESIDENT WILSON PLEASSED WITH RESULT IN STATE ELECTION—"SPLENDID VICTORY," HE SAYS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—To David L. Walsh, elected governor of Massachusetts yesterday, President Wilson today sent the following telegram: "My heartiest congratulations. It was a splendid victory, finely won."

The president took a great interest in the various municipal elections and sent to his personal friend, Mayor Baker, re-elected in Cleveland the following message: "Please accept my warmest congratulations. It did us all good to hear of your victory."

Unofficial returns to the White House stating that Fielder had carried Essex county by 721 pleased the president very much. Secretary Tumulty declared that in Essex county the Smith-Nugent faction of the democratic party had supported the republican ticket.

Endorse Wilson's Policies Secretary Bryan said in a statement today that yesterday's election afforded the first opportunity the country had had to express itself on any extensive scale since the presidential election last November and that the results could not be taken otherwise than as an endorsement of the policies of President Wilson. Secretary Daniels said: "As a rule the first elections after the administration has come into power."

er are not so substantially and so overwhelmingly an approval of the policies of the administration as were yesterday's. In every state election the vote shows that the administration is in favor with the people and they trust the democratic party to fulfill the promises of reforms made last November."

Three Democratic Governors Elected Yesterday—Other Victories

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Democratic governors were elected yesterday in each state where this office was filled—Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia—and with the exception of New York state, where the Tammany democracy was severely rebuked, more democratic than republican victories were recorded at the polls. Maryland elected a democratic United States senator, Blair Lee, and of four congressmen elected three are democrats. The exception was C. D. Paige in the third Massachusetts district.

In Massachusetts there was a democratic landslide. Lieut. Gov. David I. Walsh was chosen governor by a plurality of 53,691, the largest ever given a democratic candidate for the office. Mr. Walsh carried with him into office every democratic candidate on the state ticket.

The Tammany democracy in New York state was condemned in a manner which left little solace to the leaders. John Purroy Mitchell, fusionist, was elected mayor of New York city, leading Edward McCall, democrat, by 121,209 votes. William Sulzer, deposed governor of the state, was returned to the assembly from New York city. The New York state assembly will be safely republican.

In New Jersey, James F. Fielder, democrat, was elected governor with a plurality of about 22,000 over the republican candidate and the democrats will control both houses of the legislature.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND

Her Head and Chest Crushed as Though, Though, Beaten With Heavy Stones

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—With her head and chest crushed as though beaten with heavy stones, a woman believed by the police to be Mrs. Mary Louisa, of St. Clair, near here, was found dead yesterday in a clump of bushes on the outskirts of Pottsville. Mrs. Louisa, disappeared from her home about two weeks ago, and her 12-year-old daughter created a stir when she reported to the police that her father had thrown her mother down a mine breach and killed her. The mine breach was searched in vain.

A week ago the husband, Michael Louisa, disappeared leaving four small children alone. They are now being cared for by the county. The description of the missing woman tallies with that of the murdered woman. She had been dead about two weeks.

GRAFT INQUIRY

Gov. Glynn and John A. Hennessey in Conference Today

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Gov. Glynn today received a telegram from John A. Hennessey, requesting an audience. The governor immediately granted the request that Hennessey was expected here this afternoon. The governor presumed that Hennessey would lay before him some of the results of his graft inquiry and suggest further investigation.

"Any evidence that Hennessey has will be given most careful consideration," the governor said. "I desire, however, to deal with facts and not conclusions."

During the mayoralty campaign in New York the government accepted an offer by Hennessey to supply material for the continuance and prosecution of the graft inquiry. There was an interchange of letters and the governor's last communication to Hennessey was a request for all the substantial evidence he had.

THE NEW GOVERNOR

How David I. Walsh Rose from Poor Boy to Chief Magistrate of the New State

Governor-elect David I. Walsh was born in Leominster, Nov. 11, 1872, the youngest but one in a family of 10 children. He received his early education in the public schools of Leominster and Clinton, graduating from the Clinton high school in 1890. He entered Holy Cross college, from which he was graduated in 1893, completing the four-year course in three years.

By the death of his father in 1884 he was obliged to work outside of school hours and after securing his college degree was forced to go to work in order to enable himself to continue his studies. He had chosen as his profession. By the fall of 1894 he had earned sufficient money to pay his tuition at Boston University Law school, from which he was graduated in 1897. In the law school he was given two of the three highest honors in the class—president and orator.

A few months later he was admitted to the bar and began practice in Fitchburg and Clinton. In 1900 he was elected to the house of representatives from that strong republican district and in 1901 was re-elected by an increased plurality. He then retired from political life until 1911, when he was drafted by the democrats to run as lieutenant governor against Robert Luce. He was defeated by the latter by a plurality of only 4151. Last year he defeated Lieut. Gov. Luce by a plurality of 35,321.

This year he declared himself a candidate for governor and swept the state. He is unmarried.

LIEUT. GOV.-ELECT BARRY

Studied Law While in Newspaper Work and Later, Won Notice by Defeating Councillor Grady

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Lieut. Gov.-Elect Edward F. Barry was born in South Boston Nov. 28, 1864. He was graduated from the Lawrence school, that district, and subsequently from the evening high school. After two years' employment in a wholesale woolen house and three years in the Boston office of the treasurer of the Hamilton Manufacturing Company and Appleton Company of Lowell, he joined the staff of the Boston Daily Advertiser.

Later he was on the staff of the Boston Herald as reporter, sporting editor and night city editor and courthouse reporter. While in the latter position he studied law and was admitted to practice in 1904.

In 1889 and 1890 he was elected from Ward 15, South Boston, to the old common council and was for several years a member of the ward and city committee of ward 15. Fully as surprising as his victory yesterday was his victory in 1907 over Thomas J. Grady, a member of the governor's council, who had been elected to serve the unexpired term of famous "Mike" Sullivan.

Grady did not treat Barry's candidacy seriously and Barry won by 324 votes. He was re-elected the next year. Like his predecessor, he was the democratic member of the council. In October, 1908, he was an unsuccessful candidate for district attorney in the democratic convention.

He is a past president of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, the New England Amateur Athletic Association and the South Boston Citizen's association, and he is also a member of many social and fraternal organizations.

PRESIDENT PLEASED

Returns to White House Smiling Over the News From Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Washington failed to get up much enthusiasm about yesterday's elections, but President Wilson returned to the White House last night wearing a genial smile of satisfaction over the returns from Massachusetts, Maryland, New York and New Jersey.

The president watched the New Jersey returns for the final confirmation of the success of the democratic ticket, for which he had spoken and voted.

The election just about depleted the capital of interested officials and those who remained behind received the news of general democratic success with apathy. Senators and representatives had either hurried home to vote or taken a holiday, if they had no election to attend to.

The chairman of the congressional committee, Representative Woods of Iowa, republican, and Representative Doremus of Michigan, democrat, paid little attention to early returns. They were interested particularly in the results of congressional elections in the 30 Massachusetts 13th and 24th New York and the 3d Maryland districts, which were slow in coming in.

The representatives of the national committees of the democratic, republican and progressive parties had closed up shop in Washington and were busy tabulating returns in New York, Massachusetts and other scenes of hotly-contested elections.

Secretary Bryan watched the returns closely, getting the figures over the telephone at his home. He had no comment to make.

FIRE PREVENTION NEWS

DIRECTIONS EVOLVED BY SECRETARY MURPHY OF THE BOARD OF TRADE

Following is another bulletin of the board of trade regarding the precautions which should be exercised with a view to the prevention of fires of various origins. It is compiled by Secretary Murphy.

Gasoline and Explosives—Do not use patent cleaning fluids, polish or chemicals unless you know something about them. Many of these contain explosives and oils of a dangerous character.

Do all gasoline cleaning in the open air, and caution the members of the family to refrain from using gasoline or like volatile in the house. Paint material should not be kept in the house nor in glass bottles.

Beware of rags or cloths used in oiling floors or cleaning or polishing furniture. They may ignite spontaneously. Be sure and burn them after using. Leaving them about for only a few hours may mean a fire.

Fire Protection—One or more approved chemical fire extinguishers should be placed in every home. They must be protected against freezing.

It is well to see that the garden hose may be attached to the kitchen faucet.

The Family Garage—Never allow open flame lights in a garage. Run the auto outside when filling the tank so that gasoline vapors will dissipate.

Do not keep quantities of gasoline or calcium carbide inside of garage or dwelling. An approved underground storage tank is the safest method for keeping gasoline.

A metal waste can and should be located at a convenient place outside the garage for all waste and greasy rags. Burn these every week.

It is unsafe to use sawdust or shavings to absorb grease and oil in a garage. If the floor is wooden scrub it occasionally with hot water and lye.

The use of gasoline for cleaning parts of the automobile in the garage is a dangerous thing.

The garage should not be heated by means of stove or open fire of any kind unless same is isolated in another room so that the gasoline vapors of the garage cannot possibly get to it.

Gasoline vapor travels.

Keep an approved fire extinguisher and a full can of sand in the garage. Water thrown on burning gasoline merely serves to spread it. Use sand.

In General, Have the telephone number of the nearest fire station on a special card at your telephone.

Familiarize the family with the operation of the nearest fire alarm box. After operating a fire alarm, stay near it to direct the firemen to the fire. Every minute is significant.

Don't fail to notify the chief of the fire department of anything you may see that is dangerous or liable to cause fire.

MEXICO TROUBLE

French Ambassador Not Notified to Take Steps Toward Mediation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The French ambassador here, M. Jusserand, has received no instructions from his government to take any steps toward mediation between the United States and Mexico, though the embassy would be the natural channel for such steps.

If the French government decides to use its good offices at this stage the usual procedure would be for Ambassador Jusserand to sound Secretary Bryan to first learn whether such overtures would be favorably received. The powers have been sufficiently informed of the inflexible determination of President Wilson to accomplish the retirement of Huerta to assure that any proposal of mediation doubtless would be based upon that understanding and would be shaped toward compelling the situation in a way that Huerta might himself be disposed to accept. Some officials feel that other steps may be developed before a tangible movement might be made toward mediation.

THE GOVERNMENT SUIT

TO DISSOLVE THE INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY WAS RE-SCHEDULED TODAY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 5.—Attorney General McReynolds was expected to enter actively today into the government's battle which is expected to dissolve the International Harvester Co. Before the hearing of the suit was resumed in the district court it was understood that Mr. McReynolds had expressed his intention of making his rebuttal argument.

Edgar Hancock of Chicago, whose attack upon the government's brief charging conspiracy in restraint of trade was interrupted by adjournment last night, resumed his argument when court convened. It was expected that all arguments would be concluded this evening and that the case would be taken under advisement by the court.

THIEVES FISH FOR WATCHES

They Get $2000 Loot from a Broadway Store Window With Police Near By

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Gold watches and other jewelry worth $2000 were stolen early yesterday from the show window of the jewelry store of Schwartz & Co. at Broadway and Thirty-seventh street. The thieves exercised unusual ingenuity in cutting a window pane and fishing the jewelry from the showcase.

The thieves panned a newspaper on the window pane and tore a hole in it. Using the newspaper as a cover, they cut a jagged hole in the window, but the newspaper held the edges of the glass from the passerby.

The thieves worked toward dawn. It is thought, opposite the store is the excavation for a new building. Sixth avenue is only a short distance away. Pedestrians were on the sidewalk not far distant and the thieves worked with such daring and skill that they got the goods easily and quickly.

The police stood on a barrel in front of the window and fished out the watches with a hook. An effort was made to lift an entire tray, but the tray slipped and its contents were scattered over the floor.

The "Stuntmen's Campers" a popular group of young men of this city will hold their first annual dancing party in Lincoln hall Friday evening and at a meeting held last night arrangements were completed for the event.

PRAYED FOR FIRE

Church Tent Burned and Pillar Says His Prayer Was Answered

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Following the destruction by fire at 2 a. m. of the tent of the Holiness Christian Rescue and Mission church, at Bell and Compton avenues, Brother Carmel Patrick, one of the pillars of the church, said that he believed a prayer of the evening before that the fire might descend upon the church and shock the sinners into repentance, may have had something to do with it.

The Rev. Melvin Pratt, pastor, however, sees nothing supernatural about the blaze, but thinks it may have been started purposely by some of the neighbors who have nightly turned phonograph batteries on the tent while services were being conducted.

Brother Patrick remains true to his conviction. In spite of his spiritual supervisor's opinion. He declares that the tent was damaged by a wind several weeks ago after some one had prayed that a mighty wind, he sent over the city to drive the unrighteous to repentance.

Tent Weatherproofed

The tent was 40 by 60 feet and had been weatherproofed to keep out the rain. Brother Patrick slept in it on a cot. He was awakened by the heat from the fire. He literally arose, took up his bed and walked out there, leaving his hat and shoes behind him.

Besides the tent, a number of chairs, some benches, an organ and hymn-books were burned. A policeman who discovered the blaze turned in an alarm but the tent burned so rapidly that the fire department could do nothing with it.

The tent had been the cause of much neighborhood disturbance since it was put up there early in June. Its congregation holds nightly services, at which there is much singing, shouting, exhorting and praying. The neighbors have complained that the noise made it impossible to sleep.

Several weeks ago many of them turned on their phonographs on the tent and played the latest popular airs when the services began. A label of music, in which church songs intermingled with half a dozen ragtime melodies, was not unusual.

Nicknames for Worshippers

The neighbors even invented nicknames for some of the worshippers. One woman, whose voice could always be distinguished above others either in exhortation or prayer, was dubbed "The Warhorse." A man leader, because of his unusual height and his eloquence, was locally known as "Birmingham."

In spite of this antipathy, the Holiness worshippers continued their meetings. If possible, their prayers became even more fervent as they beseeched divine intervention to soften the hearts of the sinners in the vicinity.

It was in some of these prayers that were uttered the petitions for the wind-storm and the fire which Brother Patrick thinks have had such disastrous consequences.

The headquarters of the mission are at Pratt's home, No. 3103 Bell avenue. Services will be conducted there, the pastor said, until the tent can be replaced. He places the total fire loss at $250.

Another Candidate

Michael McDermott, provision dealer in Church street, took nomination papers at the city clerk's office, this afternoon, for the school board. Mr. McDermott lives at 15 Mission place.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Stocks were inclined to sag at the opening of today's market, all of the important issues. Reading excepted, yielding fractionally. Mexican Petroleum was four points below its previous low record.

Soon after the opening full recovery was made by the principal leaders and Mexican Petroleum regained most of its loss. Trading was in moderate volume with no indication of outside interest. The Mexican situation continued to be the factor of paramount importance, this being reflected in the heavy tone of the foreign exchanges.

Belief that the next few days would bring important developments in the Mexican situation restricted speculation after the first hour. At the height of the rise gains of one to two points were general among the leaders. Strength of the standard stocks pulled down, however, and final figures showed general gains.

Having accomplished a partial retreat of the short interest, the bulls were content to let the market drift along idly in the late hours. There was little profit taking on the rise. The action of the market encouraged holders of stocks to remain on the long side for the time being.

The market closed firm. Hardening of call money and unfavorable news from the steel trade stopped a late upward turn. No symptoms of weakness developed, however, and final figures showed general gains.

MERCURY CASES

Five in New York Hospital—Three are Held Prisoners

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The five victims of bichloride of mercury poisoning, now in the city hospitals, showed little change in condition yesterday. At the Knickerbocker hospital Miss Dorothy Brown of No. 205 West One Hundred and Seventeenth street, who took seven and one half grains of the poison in mistake for a headache tablet Monday night, was reported to be in a serious condition.

Dr. V. A. Nardullo said that Miss Brown recovers it will be due to a large measure to the fact that milk and the whites of eggs were given to her by friends as soon as she realized her mistake.

Mrs. Mary Holmes of No. 2371 Eighth avenue, who was taken to the Harlem hospital last week, was reported to have improved in the last day or so.

Bellevue has three bichloride victims—Frank S. Dowdell, a newspaper man of No. 349 West Thirty-fourth street; Miss Fannie Anglin of No. 127 Mott street, and Miss Helen Richards, whose address is given as No. 356 Cauldwell avenue, the Bronx. All three are in the prison wards, and it is believed in their cases the poison was self-administered.

All three are conscious. Dowdell sent out word that he was feeling fine and hoped to be up in a few days.

At No. 356 Cauldwell avenue, the address of Miss Richards given by the hospital records, it was said that no such person was known to any of the residents.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Will Be Held at C. M. A. C. Hall For the Children of St. Joseph's Parish

Rev. J. H. Racette, O. M. F., Ph. D., pastor of St. Joseph's parish, sent a letter to the members of the C. M. A. C., asking them to consider the matter of renting their hall to the parish for the celebration of mass for children, and the same was agreed at last night's meeting of the association.

It was unanimously voted to give the use of the hall on Sunday mornings to the parish free of charge, and a committee consisting of the following was appointed to confer with Fr. Racette in order to find out at what time the hall will be used for worship: Wilfred Achin, Frank Leclerc, Joseph L. Lamoureux and J. Arthur Lussier, executive. There will be two masses celebrated every Sunday, and it is believed the first service will be held a week from next Sunday, and will be exclusively for children.

The association has accepted the invitation of Court St. Paul, C. O. F., to participate in the parade which will be held on Thanksgiving day in connection with the blessing of a banner for the court, and it was also decided to accept the challenge of the members of the Pawtucket Social club to meet them in a pool, billiard and whist match on the evening of Nov. 25. A light party will be held under the auspices of the C. M. A. C. and the following were appointed to prepare a musical program for the event: Joseph Chouinard, Adolphe Brassard, Jeffrey Latte, Pierre Rheume and Theodore Letourneau. J. Arthur Lussier presided.

MITCHEL MAKES STATEMENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—John Purroy Mitchel, mayor-elect of this city, said this afternoon that he could not be too emphatic in saying that the national administration had nothing to do with his election.

"While President Wilson has been very friendly to me and I have no doubt that he is pleased with the results," he said, "neither he or anybody connected with the national administration took any part in the city election. If the president had taken any part in the campaign we would not have had the co-operation of the republican party."

NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

ALIENISTS DECLARED TODAY THAT ENRIQUE ZEPEDA WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—Alienists today declared not responsible for his act Enrique Zepeda, a near relative of provisional President Huerta and former governor of the federal district, who while in office entered the Delém prison on Mar. 27, 1913 and caused the murder of Major Gabriel Hernandez, a commandant of rural guards under the Huerta administration.

Zepeda told a squad of mounted police to the prison where Hernandez was confined as a political prisoner, ordered him out and had him riddled with bullets. Zepeda then had Hernandez placed in the prison courtyard and had the body of Hernandez placed on top and burned.

DROP SCHOOL TEACHER

BECAUSE SHE FAILED TO TELL THAT SHE WAS MARRIED—MISCONDUCT CHARGED

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Because Miss Jeanette V. Ortmann became Mrs. Jeanette V. Gause, who has been suspended from her position as primary teacher in public school No. 4, the Bronx. Her removal is on the technical charge of "gross misconduct." Her trial will come before the board of education Nov. 11.

The suspension, according to Mrs. Gause, is the outcome of a careless mistake made by the board when it passed upon her application more than a year ago.

Mrs. Gause (then Miss Ortmann) was a substitute teacher in the New York schools from June, 1911, to June, 1912. She was married in July, 1912, and went immediately to Europe, returning Sept. 24. She made application for appointment at that time, and in reply to the principal's question, "Are you married?" she left a blank.

She taught under regular appointment last year, but on Sept. 15 last, was called before Asst. Supt. A. W. Edison and suspended, charged with "gross misconduct" and with willful desertion of her position.

Mrs. Gause says Mr. Edison warned her she had "best get out of the system before you get out."

According to a by-law, no married woman may be appointed to the teaching staff of any city schools. Mrs. Gause will declare the law forbids the board to make any such appointment, not hers. In a letter to Supt. Maxwell, which she says he entirely ignored, Mrs. Gause asked:

"Is it because I am a married woman that I have been suspended, or because the board of education has violated its own laws?"

vote and got good plurality in the district.

Daniel Cosgrove, progressive candidate, Lieutenant governor, polled a big vote in Lowell, his native city. Mr. Cosgrove received 152 votes against 414 for Edward P. Barry, the democratic candidate and his nearest competitor, August H. Goetting, the republican candidate received 2912 votes.

It was early decided that Senator Fisher was elected by a large plurality and a little later the returns showed that Senator Draper was re-elected.

The contest for county commissioner was one of absorbing interest and the people had to go home late in the night without knowing who was elected. The returns indicated, however, that the contest finally lay between McCloskey, the democratic candidate, and Barlow, the republican, with a vote so close that neither could claim victory until the complete returns were in. Today Barlow's election is conceded.

In the representative contests there was also much interest shown. In the 19th district especially the fight between Rep. Williams and his opponent, John R. Higgins, was very close. At first some of the politicians in the district figured out that Rep. Williams was elected by two or three votes. When, however, the official vote was reported it showed a slight error which gave the victory to Mr. Higgins.

Out in the 14th district, made up of Dracut and Ward 1 of Lowell, there was also a spirited contest in which John W. Brennan, the democratic candidate, won out, defeating Hon. Joseph Hibbard, republican, and Mr. Cecil Dodge, progressive.

There is much interest locally in the defeat of District Attorney Higgins by his democratic opponent. This was wholly unexpected by the republicans of the county and it would appear that the ring has been completely smashed so far as the results of yesterday's election are concerned.

It was a very quiet election night at city hall and the newspaper men and the tabulators in the clerk's office were not annoyed by the crowd as of yore. The night was fairly mild and the crowd congregated in Merrimack square to watch the returns as they were flashed on the canvas.

The first precinct to come in at city hall was precinct 2 of ward 2 and it was called off to the reporters and other tabulators at 9:01 o'clock. The last precinct was in at a few minutes after ten o'clock and in view of the fact that the ballot was a very difficult one to fold, because of its size, the counters in the different precincts made very good time. Some of the old timers, who know of the awkwardness of the precincts would not reach city hall before midnight.

Appended are the city and district summaries telling the story at a glance.

PLAYED AMERICAN AIRS

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 5.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today on board the Argentina gunboat Uruguay from Montevideo.

The gunboat was escorted into the harbor by several steamers dressed with flags from stem to stern. As he approached she fired a salute of 21 guns to which the gunboat Rosario replied.

Several delegations of leading political personages and representatives of institutions went on board to greet the distinguished visitor. Col. Roosevelt was met on the quay by the American minister, John W. Garrett, the aides-de-camp of the president, the Argentine ministers of war and marine, the chief of the protocol, members of the foreign diplomatic corps and a number of high officers of the army and navy.

A military band played the American and Argentine national anthems and an enormous crowd applauded as Col.
Roosevelt stepped ashore.

Col. Roosevelt afterward went with Mr. Garrett to his residence, thousands of people in the streets cheering him as he passed.

PHILADELPHIA RESULTS

OVER FUSION FORCES—WIN

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The victory of the regular republicans here yesterday over the fusion forces led by Mayor Blankenburg, appeared more complete today as further returns were received. The reform element, which had formed a combination with the democrats to wrest control of city councils from the republican organization and also to capture four county offices lost ground in nearly every way. The republicans not only won the county offices by more than 30,000 majority, but increased their membership in councils.

The regular republicans also elected their three county judges on the non-partisan ballot and got a sweeping victory in the fight for municipal court judges, electing all their nine candidates who were also on the non-partisan ballot.

RELEASE OF MANIGAL ORDERED

Famous Dynamite In-
former Said to Be Ill
at Los Angeles Jail

He Was Chief Witness
Against 33 Union
Officials

ORTIE MC MANIGAL

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—The poor health of Ortie E. McManigal, the confessed dynamite, was the reason given yesterday by District Attorney D. Fredericks for ordering what is believed to be the permanent release from the county jail of the married co-worker of the McNamara brothers and chief witness against 33 labor union leaders, who were sentenced to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth for complicity in a nation-wide dynamite conspiracy.

In Poor Health
"McManigal has been in poor health for some time," Fredericks said, "and he has been taken out of jail on the advice of a physician. He may be back in a few days, a few weeks or a few months." Mr. Fredericks would give no further information.

According to jail attendants, McManigal's appetite and constantly increasing girth and weight indicated that his ill health might have been due to over eating. They said, however, that he had actually gone to a hospital, but it was to have a surgical operation performed to remove from his forehead a great scar by which he feared former associates might recognize him.

JOHN L. TALKS CARMEN SCORE

Great Pugilist Prefers
Old-Fashioned Girl to
New Woman

Chairman Storrow Sustains Objections to
Out of State Evidence

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—"The modern woman!"—John L. Sullivan's enormous fist crashed down on his knee with a force that made the little blonde woman who sat looking at him in awestruck wonder jump—"I'm against 'em—dead against 'em."

And then the one and only John L., once idol of the prize fight ring, spend-thrift and all round good fellow—now developed into a gentleman farmer and philosopher, explained.
"Too much society," he growled, "too much thinking about what other men think about her looks, and not enough about what her husband thinks of her. Half the time they haven't got any husbands at that. Bachelor girls, huh, my lady, I've seen 'em. I've seen 'em through his pockets for a match, found one, and lighted an aged clay pipe. For a moment he puffed ruminatively."
"Now," he finally continued, "glimpse the old-fashioned girl like I used to know when I was a youngster. I ain't sayin' anything about morals, mind you. I'm just talking about the way they look at things—at life. But the young men ain't much better at that. Too much education, booze and boin' good fellows."

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The Boston Elevated carmen scored yesterday at the hearing before the special board of arbitrators in Ford Hall, when Chairman J. J. Storrow of the board reaffirmed a ruling which sustained the objections made Monday by counsel for the employees to the introduction of evidence by the road relative to the wage scale in force on railways outside Massachusetts.

Chairman Storrow ruled that the Elevated company should confine its evidence on this point to roads within the boundaries of the state and Arbitrator James H. Vahey went on record as concurring in the ruling. The third member of the board, J. L. Richards, dissented, stating in his opinion that the board should hear all possible evidence on the subject of wages.

The ground taken by the majority of the board was that the evidence in question would have no substantial value.

Second Vice-President Matthew C. Brush, the witness who was to have testified on that point, resumed the stand yesterday and read figures setting forth the rate of wages on several railways operating in Massachusetts. It was the company's purpose to show through these figures that its wage scale compared favorably with the other roads made.

The witness testified:
That the rate of 25.6c per hour now paid by the Elevated to first year men is higher than the rate paid by any other railway company in Massachusetts; that the maximum rate of 28c per hour paid by the Elevated is higher than the maximum rate paid by any other railway company in Massachusetts; and that the rates paid by the Elevated during the first three years in the service are higher than those paid by the Bay State Street Railway Company, the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Company, the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company and the Blue Hill Street Railway Company.

Vice-President Brush was cross-examined at length by Atty. General C. H. Illie, chief of the maintenance department, explained the classification system in the Elevated shops and the piece-work system. He asserted that both were necessary.

Witness was prepared to show by tabulated lists the number of men employed, rates of wages paid and the different classifications and conditions in shops gleaned from August pay rolls of the Bay State, Boston & Albany, N. H. Rhode Island, Worcester Consolidated and Springfield road shops, when Atty. General Illie, Counsel for the carmen declared that the Rhode Island shop and the Nassau, N. H. shop of the Bay State were outside of the state and that shop conditions or other data obtained from them should not be considered any more than the wage scales of roads or traction companies outside of the state.

The board upheld Mr. Feeney's objections and decided that the ruling regarding evidence of wages of roads outside of the state also applied to shop conditions and other data. As a result of this ruling Atty. Nichols for the company requested an adjournment in order that the tabulated lists may be rearranged to comply with the new ruling. The hearing will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning in Kinsey hall, Ford building.

MAYOR FRENCH WINS

CONCORD, N. H.—DEFEATED ED-
WARD J. GALLAGHER

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—The municipal election in this city yesterday brought out a heavy vote and resulted in the re-election of Charles J. French for his fourth consecutive term by a vote of 2149 to 1832 for Edward J. Gallagher, the young newspaperman, who put up a game fight for the place.

French carried four of the nine wards and won by securing heavy pluralities in wards 4 and 7, the big wards of the city.

James H. Morris was unsupported for a place on the board of tax assessors. Richard A. Brown, Michael J. Lee and Arthur E. Sturtevant were elected members of the board of public works, and Fred M. Dodge, George O. Robinson, Henry M. Richardson, Charles A. Bartley, Augustine R. Ayers, Walter Williamson, Warren W. Lee, William L. Regan and Eugene J. O'Neil, ward aldermen.

G. O. P. NOT DEAD

Result of Election Proves Mr. Bird and His Associates in Error, Says Ex-Lieut. Gov. Robert Luce

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Ex-Lieut. Gov. Robert Luce made the following statement:
"Speaking broadly, the most important result of the election is its proof that Mr. Bird and his associates were in error in saying that the republican party is dead. The laws of this state will still be made by republicans, and no man will be appointed to office without the consent of a republican council."

"About two-fifths of the voters are democrats, as has been the case for many years, both in Massachusetts and in the nation. The other three-fifths, having really the same view on all essential matters of public policy, are for the moment divided over leaders and nonessential details."
"The rank and file of the two factions have no quarrel with each other. Therefore the sooner the leaders of both factions forget pride, ambition, and the full control of affairs in state and nation be returned to the majority of the people."

There was a large attendance at the banquet of the Mothers' association of the First Congregational church, which was held in the vestry of the church and the affair was successful in every way. A feature of the evening was an address by Carl D. Burt of the Lowell high school, and by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. B. Newcomb. Others who spoke were Mr. Charles L. Randall, superintendent of the suburban schools, who spoke on "The Compensations of Being a Married Man"; Deacon D. A. Carter, who took for his subject "The Fun of Being a Grandfather," and the president, Mrs. George M. Heath, who delivered an address of welcome.

The evening opened with musical selections by Master George Faulkner, Mrs. H. A. Hanson and Mrs. A. E. Duncan. At the conclusion of the entertainment the large gathering sat down to a bountiful repast, the dinner being followed by speeches. Mr. Burt spoke on "The Training of Parents," and his remarks were very interesting. The meeting closed with the singing of "Rest Be the Tie That Binds."

A GREAT VICTORY

Mayor Fitzgerald Pleased With the Result—Will Aid President Wilson. He Says

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Mayor Fitzgerald had the following to say last night on the result of the state election:
"This overwhelming victory places a great responsibility on every democrat elected to state office, but under the master leadership qualities of David I. Walsh, with his splendid personal integrity, I look to see a solid party front on measures of great importance to the people of this state."
"The democratic party of Massachusetts has the greatest opportunity in its history, and I look to see it make such a record as to deserve and receive future success."

"The great plurality to the ticket is a splendid endorsement of the Wilson administration that must strengthen the hands of our president in the great fight he is making for democratic principles at the national capital."

Keep Looking Young
It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no watch of having a sallow complexion—dark lines under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.
Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a well-known physician in Ohio, prepared a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and for years.

They bring about that gentle but sure action, yet always effective. They bring about that buoyancy of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio.

SULZER WON OUT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—William Sulzer, ousted from the governorship of New York last month by verdict of a high court of impeachment was elected to the state assembly yesterday from the sixth district by a sweeping plurality, estimated at 2000 or more.

He ran on the progressive ticket and apparently has polled more votes than his republican and democratic opponents combined. His old neighbors on the East Side rallied strongly to his support, and it was early apparent that he had swamped the opposition.

There was jubilation unbounded in the former governor's headquarters as the count began to show his victory. Sulzer himself was all smiles. He regarded his triumph as a personal vindication, he said, and issued a statement thanking his supporters and commending Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, who he declared, was condemned by the vote that gave the district William Sulzer as its representative at Albany.

"The people of the Sixth Assembly district," said Sulzer, in his statement, "think better of me than of Mr. Murphy. They know why Mr. Murphy removed me from the governorship; they know when Mr. Murphy tried to bribe me I refused to be bribed; they know when Mr. Murphy threatened me I defied his threats. The voters have now condemned Mr. Murphy; reversed the judgment of his high court of infamy and vindicated me by the verdict of the polls, which in the last analysis, is the opinion of mankind."
"From Mr. Murphy's high court of infamy I appealed to the higher court of public opinion. Mr. Murphy says that there was no appeal from his court but Mr. Murphy was mistaken; and he knows now that the judgment of the people can reverse the judgment of any court."

LARCENY CASE IN COURT

Welcomed into the house as a long lost brother might be received, treated to the best that the cuisine afforded and lodged for the night on the downyest bed, the appreciation of William M. Markey for the hospitality shown him by Antoine Dupont resulted in his stealing the latter's watch and chain, while his host slept peacefully beside him. Markey was in court this morning charged with larceny.

The complaint informed the court of the manner in which the defendant was treated by him and the way in which guest and watch disappeared after the night's entertainment. He was very certain that the watch disappeared by Deputy Downey was the timepiece which he lost on the night in question.

Dupont said that the watch was stolen from him the latter part of August, but that he could not round up the defendant until recently. He found out a few days ago that Markey was working on a farm in Draught and immediately got out a warrant for his arrest.

Officer Cullinane of Draught arrested the defendant and testified that he had no talk with him about the theft.

A local pawnbroker testified that the watch produced in court was pawned at his place on September 2, for the sum of two dollars. He positively identified the defendant as the man who "struck up" the watch.

The defendant asserted that he did not steal the watch but that the timepiece belonged to him all the time. He bought it, he said, from a man named Mitchell in North Pelham. A ticket was presented to the court which testified that a local jeweler had repaired the watch for Dupont only a short time before the theft was committed. This fact non-plussed the defendant but he declared that he was innocent.

Judge Enright found Markey guilty and ordered him committed to jail for a term of three months. The defendant had no remarks to offer as he was led back to his seat in the dock.

Assault Case
The case of Hugo Hill, over which quite a lot of interest was aroused at its last appearance before the court, was dismissed today, civil settlement having been made between the parties involved. Hill was charged with assault and battery upon Joseph Galvin, whom the police claimed went to the hospital for a fortnight's stay as a result of a kick by Hill.

Arthur Whitehead, a man with only one eye, pleaded guilty to a loud voice to the charge of vagrancy preferred against him. He was sent up to the state farm at Bridgewater.

INDIGESTION

It is so much wiser to take the proper remedy than to let the trouble continue, that you ought to act without delay.

Indigestion robs you of your strength, of your sleep, of your power to work or to enjoy the natural pleasures of life. BILIOUSNESS is a common form of Indigestion. It shows that poisons are being formed in the intestinal tract. Headaches, poor appetite, restless nights, bad dreams, sour taste, coated tongue, sallow skin, nervousness are among the symptoms of Biliousness. Beecham's Pills relieve these distressing conditions by removing the cause. OBSERVED TENTH ANNIVERSARY CRUSHING DEFEAT OF TAMMANY

Members of A. G. P. E.
M. B. Association
Held Banquet

Arthur G. Leveille Was Elected President Last Night

ARTHUR G. LEVEILLE,
Elected President

A banquet and a theatre party marked the tenth anniversary of the founding of the A. G. Pollard Employees Mutual Benefit association last night, the first number on the program being carried out at Middlesex hall, while the other was held at the B. F. Keith theatre. A new board of officers was also elected for a year and a very pleasant evening was spent.

In the early evening the members of the association and their wives gathered at Middlesex hall, where a business meeting was held with President James P. Richards in the chair. Routine business was transacted and the annual report of the treasurer was read, showing the association to be in a good financial condition. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Arthur G. Leveille, president; Isaac H. Munter, vice president; Justin H. Kimball, treasurer; Edward Desrosiers, collector; John Orrell and Chas. A. Delaronde, auditors. The new officers were immediately installed into office and this was followed by a banquet, those addressing the gathering being Messrs. Harry G. Pollard, James P. Richards, Arthur G. Leveille and many others.

At 8 o'clock the entire party wended their way to the B. F. Keith theatre, where seats had been reserved for them in the orchestra circle. The program was thoroughly enjoyed, and all were satisfied with the manner in which the evening was spent. The association was organized ten years ago with but a few members, but now it has a membership of over 200, and its financial condition is the best ever. The past presidents of the association are James E. McKoon, Frank L. Kimball, William R. Myers, William W. Bazzell, Fred A. Dubois, Robert J. Young, Pearl R. Kinney and James P. Richards.

AMERICAN LEAGUE WILL NOT CONSIDER DEMANDS TOMORROW, SAYS JOHNSON

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The American league will not consider the demands of the ball players' fraternity at its meeting tomorrow. President Johnson this afternoon said that the league had never been asked formally by the fraternity to grant any reforms or to make any changes in the contracts and that while the national commission had referred to each clubowner a synopsis of the changes desired by the men the program of the meeting called for no discussion of it. The commission probably will take action on the demands ahead of either the American or National leagues if any action is taken according to Johnson.

Fusionists Elect Mitchell
Mayor by a Plurality
of 110,000

Democrats Also Lose
Control of State Assembly—Sulzer Wins

JOHN PURROY MITCHELL
Mayor-Elect of New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Each successive recapitulation early today affirmed the crushing defeat of Tammany forces in yesterday's elections in this state. The organization was not only engulfed in a plurality of 121,289 votes with which the fusionists elected John Purroy Mitchell, mayor of New York city but in the state the democrats who had been in control for three years lost the assembly. The result is generally read as a rebuke to Tammany control of the democratic party of the state. The vote for mayor follows:

Borough	McCall	Mitchell	Russell
Manhattan	102,125	130,452	11,765
Brooklyn	25,804	46,541	5,676
Queens	77,925	136,596	11,569
Richmond	29,269	33,461	2,859
	6,315	8,447	243
	224,479	335,858	32,103

Sulzer Elected
William Sulzer was elected to the assembly, less than three weeks having intervened since he was removed from the governor's chair. Many of the legislators who voted to impeach him met defeat. On the basis of incomplete returns it was estimated that the next assembly will be composed of 55 republicans, 17 progressives and 18 democrats. Many of the latter were said to be men of progressive or independent tendencies.

Fusionists Victorious
The fusionists won the majority contest in New York with a plurality almost as large as that which the Tammany chieftain, Charles F. Murphy, had said yesterday would elect Edward E. McCull. Returns were still lacking from a few districts early today but a fifth tally of about 26,000 to 11,000 was conceded. The vote of the borough of Brooklyn complete showed a contribution of 58,000 toward this plurality, or more than half the advantage which spelled the Tammany rout, while Manhattan gave Mitchell a plurality of about 26,000. With much reduced pluralities but safe margins, the fusionists elected William A. Prendergast comptroller of the city and George McNamee, president of the board of aldermen. They kept out of Tammany hands the presidency of the three principal boroughs, Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx and thus increased the anti-Tammany majority on the board of estimate, which controls the city's expenditures. The fusion vote on the board will be 14 to Tammany's 2. A fusion majority in the board of aldermen was elected.

"Big Tim's" Successor
Two democratic congressmen were elected in the city, from the 13th and 20th districts. From the former George W. Loft was chosen to succeed the late Timothy D. Sullivan. Jacob Cantor was elected in the 28th to succeed Francis Burton Harrison, resigned.

FOOTBALL GAME

Lawrence Academy and Lowell Textile battled today on the Moody street campus in their scheduled football game, the game starting late on account of the visiting team's inability to make good connections.

Textile looked to be heavier than Lawrence Academy although the Academy team was very fast and had a galaxy of trick plays ready to spring at any point in a contest. Captain Fisher asserted, just before time, was called for the kick-off, that his men should beat the visitors by at least two touchdowns.

CAUSES GREAT DISTRESS

It gives me great pleasure to recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to anyone suffering from bladder trouble. For four years I was troubled by hemorrhages from the bladder and was not able to get any doctor who could help me. I was in such shape that sleep at night was impossible on account of distressing symptoms. While bending over I would be stricken with such a pain that it was impossible for me to straighten up. Mr. Hendry, one of our leading druggists, advised Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, although I never had any faith in patent medicines, as a last resort I purchased a dollar bottle of Swamp-Root. I noticed a decided change and after using two bottles I was completely cured. It seemed remarkable that I should be cured so quickly after being ill so long. But since this took place nearly two years ago, I have never been troubled and would highly advise any one suffering from the same trouble to at least give Swamp-Root a trial and I think the results will be the same as mine.

Yours very truly,

THOMAS A. BENNETT,

Greensburg, Indiana.

Personally appeared before me this 14th day of February, 1913, Mr. T. A. Bennett, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

The New Furs

This is Pre-eminently a Fur Season—Furs never were so favored by Fashion's dictates—were never so cleverly wrought into garments of real beauty—were never so wearable as right now.

There's a new beauty in Furs this season—it's the beauty of a new fur craft. Fur garments are no longer warm but clumsy—They are beautiful and warm. The artist no longer treats Fur as Fur simply from the old-fashioned viewpoint, but classes it as a material—a fabric, if you will, and as a fabric he shapes it and drapes it—he plaits it and embroiders it—he uses it in combinations and in a hundred ways he takes advantage of its richness, its color, its fluffiness and its warmth.

The result of this new attitude of the artist is that Furs are as graceful as velvet, as adaptable as satins, as versatile as silks. They adorn the figure, not conceal it. They warm the aesthetic sense as well as the body.

Dependable Furs Only

Jordan Marsh Company Furs are dependable—in price, value, style and wearing quality. That means good buying founded on some generations of experience. It means thorough knowledge of skins and the new methods of tanning, which have made the fur of today softer, lighter, more workable and more beautiful. It means knowledge of makers and styles; and finally it means honest grading and honest pricing.

We sell Furs for exactly what they are and at fair prices.

The Fur Coats

This year compare with the most beautiful opera and evening coats in points of elaborateness, draped effects and ornamentation. A greater variety of furs is used—the garment is lighter in weight, but has greater elegance of shape. The prices range from $50.00 to $2200.00.

Automobile Fur Coats

We are showing the best and most dependable for both women and men. The latest idea is to have them made up exactly alike—save for size and weight, so that they can be bought in pairs. Prices range from $35.00 to $550.00.

Fur Wraps and Sets

In all the most desirable furs and at various prices. The scarfs show the new mode—the muffs are longer than they are wide, and gathered gracefully at the top when worn. Prices range from $15.00 to $500.00.

FURS MOST USED ARE

Fitch, Skunk, Marten, Black Fox, Colored Fox, Lynx, Scotch Mole, Squirrel, Leopard, Fisher, Raccoon, Civet Cat, Silver Fox, Hudson Seal, Otter, Chinchilla, Squirrel, Mink, Beaver.

Fur buyers now find much wider selection, greater number of exclusive pieces and garments than those who delay for a month or even a week. At any rate, you should see the exposition of New Furs NOW, while at its best.

WIFE DESERTION

Some Homes Justify
Men Running Away,
Says Mrs. Van Wyck

LACROSSE, Wis., Nov. 3.—"Some of the homes I have seen almost justify the husband in running away from them," declared Mrs. Katherine Van Wyck of Milwaukee, president of the state conference on charities and corrections, in concluding today her annual report before the convention. "The wife who does not know her job," she said, "must take her share of the blame for the many cases of wife desertion."

To teach woman her work, she advocated compulsory domestic courses in the public schools.

Mrs. Van Wyck argued strongly for a federal fugitive husband law similar in operation to the Mann white slave law. She would have the national government pursue the fleeing husband and send him to the federal penitentiary. As an accompanying remedy she urged legislation wiping out, if possible, the practice of tramps riding on trains and she said that in practically every tramp was to be found a runaway husband.

BRYAN REFUSES TO TALK

WOULD NOT DISCUSS THE MEXICAN SITUATION IN ANY OF ITS PHASES TODAY

RETIRED PRIEST TO SELL PAPERS
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Rather than continue to accept $25 a month from a benevolent society for pensioned priests, the Rev. Michael S. Pyplatz, for 30 years pastor of the St. Joseph's

Polish Catholic church, is going to sell newspapers on Chicago's streets. Yesterday he came here from Desplaines, Ill., where he has been in retirement since last May, and decided to put up a news stand at State and Madison streets. "This inscription will hang above the stand: 'This is Father Pyplatz, who for 30 years served his people in St. Joseph's parish at Armitage avenue and 48th street, in South Chicago.'"

The retired priest declared that it is not just to the benevolent society to take its money when he is able to work.

SUPERIOR COURT SESSION

The superior court opened this morning and suits brought against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and against the Prudential Life Insurance Co. by Alex. Smith, executor of the will of the late John Kaspar of Lowell, were called for trial. Butler, Cox, Marchese and Bacon of Boston represented the Metropolitan, with Mr. Bacon trying the case, while the Prudential company was represented by C. T. Cuttrel, John W. McInnis and J. T. O'Brien. The two cases are tried as one.

In the action against the Metropolitan Co., the plaintiff in his declaration stated that the defendant made a policy of $500 on John Kaspar late of Lowell, payable on the death of said Kaspar to his estate; that the conditions of this policy were fulfilled; Kaspar died on or about September 7, 1911, and proof of his death was submitted to the company together with the policy and payment demanded. The company refused payment.

The defendant company answering denied the allegations made by the plaintiff, stating that if issuance of the policy was made, it was done in consideration of and reliance upon certain representations by Kaspar which were known to him to be false and which he made with the purpose of deceiving the company and which did deceive the company. Defendant stated that Kaspar said that the statements made by him to the medical examiner were true whereas they were false, and therefore the policy is void. Further, defendant in answering the declaration, stated that another person was fraudulently substituted for Kaspar in signing the application and submitting it to the medical examiner, that facts were concealed and that as a consequence the policy was void. In an amendment the defendant company changes the word "declaration" in a part of the answer to "application".

The declaration in the action of Smith vs. Prudential company, is practically the same as that in the case against the Metropolitan, claiming a policy of $500 issued on Kaspar, and not paid on the latter's death. In answering the defendant denies the ma-

QUICKLY STOPS WORST BACKACHE

Makes Kidney, Bladder Disorders and Rheumatic Pains Vanish

If you suffer with backaching kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders, or are tormented with rheumatism, stiff joints and heart-wrenching pains, you will be surprised how quickly and surely Croxone will relieve all such misery.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, cleans out and strengthens the stopped up organs, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away the acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs, clean, strong, active and healthy.

It matters not how long you have suffered; how old you are, or what you have tried. It is practically impossible to make Croxone without results, for it starts to work the minute you take it. If you suffer with pains in the back or sides; if you are nervous, tired and run down; bothered with urinary disorders, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles or rheumatism, don't spend another needless day suffering.

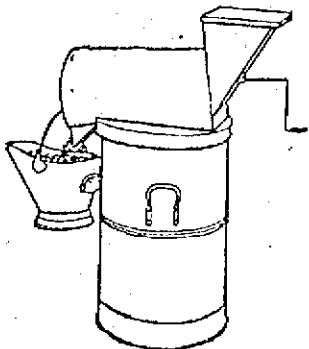

Secure an original package of Croxone today, and prove for yourself right now, as thousands of others have done, just how quickly it will end your misery.

Croxone is inexpensive, and every druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

terial allegations and says that if such a policy was issued and fulfilled, it was paid long since. In an amendment the Prudential company through its attorney alleges that Kaspar made false representations in his application, that another person was fraudulently substituted for him, that the answers to certain questions, of which a copy was attached, were wrong, that he was not in sound health but was suffering from tuberculosis.

In each suit, the damages claimed are the amount of the alleged policy with interest. Mr. McKee opened the case for the plaintiff this morning, calling to the witness stand, Mr. Smith, the plaintiff.

ADOPTS "BOY" 33

Woman Will Seek a Court Sanction to Change His Name

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Mother-love, the longing for a son to call her own, has led to the application of Mrs. Arthur L. Judis, through her husband, for permission to adopt H. J. Anderson, aged 33 years, who has lived with them at their home, 1532 Dublin street, for many years.

"I merely wanted to call Harry my own boy," said Mrs. Judis, explaining the odd circumstance of the adoption of a 33-year-old "boy."

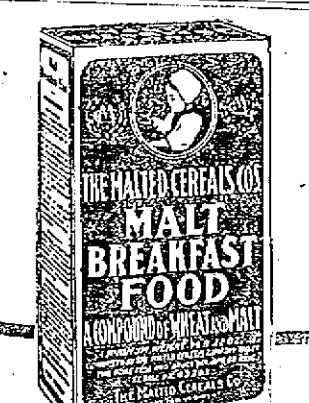

"He has lived with us as such for a number of years, and we wished that he be vested with all the rights of a child of our own and come into the inheritance of our property."

"It isn't extraordinary for a woman to want to adopt a child. Women want children. Denied any of her own, a woman who is able and who has the instinct of motherhood will frequently adopt a child. I have a boy in my own home who had lived with us for years, and to whom both myself and husband were attached as to a son. I see no reason why the mere fact that he was 33 years old should be allowed to deter us from making him our own."

Mrs. Judis said that she had always wanted a child, and that she had finally decided to adopt one. In case the court permits the adoption—which is probable—Anderson will have his name changed to that of his foster father. Mr. Anderson is in the employ of the Life Insurance company of Virginia.

Mrs. Judis has for years been interested in philanthropic work, and has been active in cases which come up before the juvenile court. Particularly her interest centered in children whose parents either through wilful neglect or inability failed to properly provide for them. Her heart was always with children, and she was instrumental in helping scores of small waifs to good homes.

MINE ACCIDENT EXPERT AND RESCUERS

EQUIPPED WITH PULMOTORS TO GIVE EXHIBITION

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—An international exhibition of safety appliances for saving human life will be held here, opening Dec. 10. Experts from many countries will participate. The American Mining Congress officials believe that the work of the association has reduced the loss of life in mines almost one-half in six years. In the accompanying illustration are shown Secretary Callbreath and the mining life savers equipped with pulmotors, used in reviving persons overcome by gases or water.

James F. Callbreath

Secretary of the American Mining Congress

SNAKES IN ROOM

Six Rattlers Enter Suffragist Headquarters—All Killed

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 5.—Six rattlers recently, but one at a time, have wiggled their ways to the rooms of the Pulaski County Political Equality League in the old state house. Six times there have been suffragist sermons, a shuffling of feet and a clanking of chairs, followed by a yielding of clubs, a counting of rattles and the terminating buttons, then six slow marches for the invaders with spade, stick or broom.

The last of the half dozen saw the light and felt the red this week. Through a small hole in the door the wanderer squirmed. Then, evidently placed at the sensation of contact with a velvety carpet, it camped out.

The bivouac, however, scarcely was begun before a snake was accented and suffragist studies by Mrs. O. F. Ellington, president of the league, ceased. The scream—and Mrs. Ellington laughingly admitted that she did—brought two young men, two negroes and the janitor—weight combined 700—and the intruder ceased to rattle.

The carter, not only passed out of the room, the smashed anatomy of the snake was deposited on the trash pile. Requisitions then were sung. All agreed it was the sixth; all decided that it came up from beneath the floor, and all agreed that it was a ten and not a twelve inch rattler. But none told why all six have found only the gateway into the suffrage headquarters when floors of the old building are found only as borders to the holes.

RESINOL WILL HEAL BABY'S ITCHING SKIN

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are absolutely free from anything of a harsh or injurious nature, and can therefore be used with confidence in the treatment of babies' skin troubles—eczema, teething rash, chafing, etc., they stop itching instantly and speedily heal even severe and stubborn eruptions. Doctors have prescribed Resinol for the past eighteen years. Resinol Soap for baby's daily bath will usually prevent any skin trouble and chafing, because it contains the soothing, healing Resinol medication. Resinol Ointment (50c and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c), are sold by druggists everywhere. For trial free, write to Dept. 25-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Avoid "substitutes" and "imitations" of Resinol which a few unscrupulous dealers offer. They are often useless and even injurious.

SAW PATIENTS HIT NURSES

Attendants at Worcester Hospital Testify Before the State Board of Insanity

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 5.—The state board of insanity resumed today its investigation into the state hospital at Worcester after a layoff over election day. The members were informed by John A. Halen, who is representing the nurses who asked for the investigation, that Max Frankill, the nurse whom he expected to put on the stand today had been obliged to flee from the hospital for self protection. Frankill had testified Monday night just before the hearing was adjourned for the day that one of the patients had been attacked by attendants since the investigation was started and that the patient suffered from broken ribs and other serious injuries. Mr. Halen said he intended to have Frankill continue his story today but the nurse had left the hospital.

A debate between Mr. Halen and members of the board regarding the way in which testimony should be submitted resulted in the board deciding to have a meeting this afternoon to formulate a plan and stick to it. Miss Maud Harris, a nurse in the hospital for the past year and a half, testified she had never seen any cases of abuse and had never seen any shooting but had heard of it. She thought the hours of the attendants were too long and that the food served is rather poor.

Miss Gertrude Roberts, another nurse, testified she had never seen any cases of abuse of patients. She said she signed the original petition because she wanted better food and less work to do. She thought the latter might be made possible by the hospital getting more nurses. She has seen patients attack nurses but never saw a nurse mistreat a patient.

IS NOT GUILTY

Engineer Was Held for Death of His Fireman in Wreck

LITCHFIELD, Conn., Nov. 5.—William H. Rigby was found not guilty of manslaughter by a jury in the superior court here today. He was engineer of a special train which was in collision with a freight at North Kent last June and in which Thomas Weldon of Stamford, his fireman, was killed and Rigby himself severely injured. He was held criminally responsible for Weldon's death by the coroner and as a result was arrested for manslaughter.

TRIAL OF STRIKE LEADER

Judge Rattigan of Superior Court Declined to Preside Over the Trial of Caldwell

WORCESTER, Nov. 5.—Judge Rattigan of the superior court declined today to preside over the trial of J. M. Caldwell, the former leader of the strikers in the Draper Co. plant in Hopkinton, who is under indictment for assault and battery in connection with the strike. Judge Rattigan presided at the former trial of Caldwell, in which he was convicted and sentenced for another offense in connection with the strike and rather than have Caldwell entertain any thought that he would not have a fair trial under the circumstances, Judge Rattigan continued the case, which was on the docket for today, until next Monday when another justice of the superior court will come to Worcester to preside.

FITCHBURG, Nov. 5.—A revision of the returns in the special election in the third congressional district yesterday was made today and disclosed several errors, including one of one hundred votes in favor of C. D. Page, the republican candidate, making his plurality 345 instead of 155.

The total vote in the district for the three candidates after the revision today was
